Miner's Editing notes:

1. I have not made any substantive corrections to Donna's notations – only abbreviating state names and combining several paragraphs into one to conserve space, and fixing a few references where updated information has been found.
2. I have added new text in blue font, from my own research, including some full-text obituaries occurring since Oct. 2000.
3. I still need to add cross-reference these notes to Donna's Henry and Frederick G. Younkin notebooks.

What is a Register Report ?

The Register Report shows a numbered genealogy list of descendants. In the late 1980s, Donna (Younkin) Logan used the NGSQ System and its Family Group Sheets for numbering descendants and compiling her genealogy database. The NGSQ System gets its name from the National Genealogical Society Quarterly published by the National Genealogical Society founded in 1903. Wikipedia says the NGSQ System uses common numerals (1, 2, 3, 4) and Roman numerals (i, ii, iii, iv) to organize descendants by grouping each generation separately. The accompanying example shows the NGSQ System where every child is numbered. Donna started numbering descendants at Johannes Junghenn (1), father of immigrant ancestors Johann Herman Junghen (2) and Johann Heinrich Junghen (3), aka Herman and Henry Younkin, who emigrated to America from Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany, in 1737 and 1750. Donna’s database of Junghen-Younkin descendants has 6,512 people numbered with the NGSQ System over ten generations and 300 years. The Register Report shows Donna’s descendant database in a convenient PDF file.

A Pioneering and Inexhaustible Genealogist

https://www.minerd.com/donna_younkin_logan_ tribute.htm

From the late 1980s through 1996, Donna (Younkin) Logan organized her genealogical research into nine three-ring binders. These volumes documented many of the earliest Younkin pioneers of southwestern Pennsylvania–Henry, Jacob, Frederick, John, Herman– as well as Rudolph of Ohio and cousins in Northampton County, Pennsylvania.

Between 1991 and 2005, Donna published and widely distributed 27 genealogy bulletins, sharing her findings with the broader family community. Until October 2000, she also maintained a Microsoft Word database, numbering Junghen-Younkin descendants according to the NGSQ System.

At the 2001 Younkin Reunion East in Kingwood, Pennsylvania, Donna entrusted fellow genealogist Mark A. Miner with her database, providing him with a large Microsoft Word text file on a compact disk (CD). From that point forward, Miner continued her work, adding his own research findings. Today, the Junghen-Younkin database documents 6,512 individuals across ten generations spanning 300 years.

Following Donna's passing in 2006, Miner made a sustained effort to transform the database into narrative and illustrated biographies, which he publishes on his website Minerd.com. This archive serves as a living resource for descendants and researchers alike. Link to archive table of contents: https://www.minerd.com/younkin_pages.htm.

Donna's family requested that her research remain accessible to future generations. In December 2024, Miner provided Mark T. Youngkin with the latest version of the database text file. Youngkin incorporated Donna's final 2002–2004 research on two generations of Junghen ancestors from Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. In 2025, he added new findings from the Niederasphe Church record book available through the Archion website. Youngkin then formatted the text, added a cover page, introduction, and table of contents, and exported the file as a Register Report in PDF format for public reading.

DESCENDANTS OF JOHANNES JUNGHENN (1671-1727) AND SONS

Immigrant Ancestors Johann Herman & Johann Heinrich "Henrich" Junghen Aka Herman And Henry Younkin

May, 29, 2025

Ancestors in Niederasphe

Donna (Younkin) Logan began numbering descendants with the NGSQ System in the late 1980s. Donna started numbering descendants with Johannes Junghen (1) and sons Johann Herman Junghen (2) and Johann Heinrich Junghen (3). Mark Terry Youngkin added Generation A-D ancestors to the database in 2024. Generation A starts with the earliest known ancestor named Herman Jungehenn born 1530 in Niederasphe during the Protestant Reformation.

Generation A

HERMAN JUNGEHENN (also Junghen, Junghenn or Jungenhen), unknown parents, born circa 1530, died circa 1603 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. Wife's name is unknown. Herman was a farmer in Niederasphe and may have been the oldest son. Herman may have owned or occupied House No. 21 and farmland. N. (Nikolaus) Jungehen and wife Bechta from Marburg (known from a record dated 1493) may be in his lineage.
Herman's children include:

1) Weygand or Weigand - born circa 1555, lived in Niederasphe and Sumishausen area.

2) Volbrech or Volpert – unknown birth date. Hans Wilhelm Junghenn, German genealogist and friend of Donna (Younkin) Logan, believed his Jungehen-Junghen-Junghenn family lineage in nearby Frankenberg and Gemueden descended from Volbrech.

3) Daughter - unknown.
4) Daughter - unknown.

Source: Mark T. Youngkin, 12-31-2024, added Generation A from 1996-2004 research by German genealogist Hans Wilhelm Junghenn (1933-2017). Hans Wilhelm and Donna (Younkin) Logan reported this information in the Junghen Family News Bulletin, February 2004, Vol. 7 No. 3 page 7. The late Hans Wilhelm and Donna did not leave a reference for the information on Herman. Donna highly respected Hans Wilhelm as a genealogist and she believed his work discovering Herman was reliable. Last name spelled "Jungehenn" comes from 1996 research by Hans-Wilhelm on potential ancestor N. Jungehenn from 1493 record in Marburg Family Book.

Generation B

WEYGAND JUNGENHEN(S), son of Herman Jungenhen, was born circa 1555 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. His name may also be spelled Weigand. Weygand married Eylad, who died on 19 October 1629. Weygand owned or occupied House No. 21 and farmland in Niederasphe. Children of Weygand and Eylad include:

1) Eyla – born or baptized 1580. The Niederasphe Church record book entry dated 1580 for the baptism of Eyla is the oldest known church record of the Junghen family in Niederasphe.

2) Krein – born or baptized 1592.

3) Gela – born or baptized 1598.

4) Andreas – born or baptized 28 October 1600.

5) Chreta – born or baptized 08 September 1605.

Last name spelled "Jungenhen" comes from 2020 research on Herman's son Weygand by German librarian Sabrina Funkner at Landeskirchliches Archiv Kassel.

Generation C

ANDREAS JUNGHEN(N), son of Weygand Jungenhen and Eylad. He was baptized on 28 October 1600. Andreas married Elisabeth Hensen, who was born in Münchhausen. They married on 12 July 1627 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. Andreas likely owned or occupied House No. 21 and farmland. Their children include:

1) Weygant, Weigandt, Wiegend - baptized on 3 August 1628 and death on 2 October 1676.

2) Krein, son - baptized on 18 October 1629 and death on 29 October 1629.

Generation D

WEIGAND(T) " WAIT" JUNGHEN, or Wiegend, Weygant, son of Andreas Junghen and Elisabeth Hensen. Weigand was baptized 03 August 1628 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. He died 1) 1673, or 2) wife Agnes and Weigand died 10 days apart with his death on 2 October 1676 and wife's death on 12 October 1676. Weigand built House No. 58 and worked a farm in Niederasphe. Known children of Weigand and Agnes include:

1) Anna Elisabeth – (1661-1687) married Johannes Feisel (died 1706) in 1686 at House No. 6 (old).

2) Eulalia - baptized on 01 Apr 1662 with confirmation in 1674. She died in 1686. In House No. 58.

3) Michel – baptized in 1666.

4) Catarina or Katarina - baptized 19 Sept 1669, married 1690 to Andreas Truß (1667-1716) in House No. 23 in Niederasphe, son Johannes Truß (1694-1760).

5) Johannes - baptized on 18 February 1672.

Source: Mark T. Youngkin, 12-31-2024, added Generations B, C and D using 2020 research into the Niederasphe Church record book by German librarian Sabrina Funkner at Landeskirchliches Archiv Kassel, where the church record book is archived. Sabrina is a professional researcher engaged by Mark T. Youngkin to translate old German script and she discovered new Junghen family entries dated 1580 to 1672 on Generations B, C and D.

First Generation

1. JOHANNES JUNGHEN(N), son of Weigand and Agnes Junghen, born about 1671 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. He was baptized on 18 February 1672 in House No. 58. Source: Mark T. Youngkin, 12-31-2024, edited and added First Generation information. Donna (Younkin) Logan reported 2002-2004 research by German genealogist Hans Wilhelm Junghenn (1933-2017), who found baptism entries in the Niederasphe Church record book on the First Generation. Donna reported the information in her article titled More On Our German Roots, Junghen Family News Bulletin dated June 2005, Vol. 7, No. 4, page 2. Donna began numbering her database using the NGSQ system starting with the First Generation father Johannes Junghen (1) and sons / immigrant ancestors: Johann Herman (2), and Johann Heinrich (3). When Donna started numbering descendants in the late 1980s, she only had information on two children: Herman and Heinrich.

Second Generation

2. Johann Herman Junghen(n) aka Herman Younkin. Born on 04 September 1712, in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. Last name Americanized to "Youngken" and other variants. His godfather was his brother in law Herman Wagner. As a teenager, he migrated from the Palatinate section of Germany to the American colonies, sailing on the ship Charming Nancy, sometimes referred to as the Charming Polly. The vessel is known to have arrived in port in Philadelphia on Oct. 8, 1737. Herman became a naturalized citizen of the American colonies' England in 1743. Johann Herman died on 28 Feb 1788 in Tinicum, Bucks County, Pennsylvania. His burial site is not known, although some researchers suggest it was in the cemetery of his house of worship, St. Luke's Church.

Herman settled 40 miles north of Philadelphia in Tinicum Township, Nockamixon Township, Bucks County, PA. Sons Abraham and Killian were willed his plantation in Tinicum containing abt 100 acres, son , Daniel received his land in Nockamixon about 50 acres. Some references from Anita Eyster's notes in Otto's files. About 1741-1742, Herman Johann first married Magdalena. Magdalena died about 1788.

Herman and Magdalena had the following children:

5	i.	John (~1743-<1829)
6	ii.	Abraham (1745-~1790)
7	iii.	Magdalena (1748-)
8	iv.	Maria Catherine (1749-1815)
9	v.	Daniel
10	vi.	George
11	vii.	Herman

Herman second married Eva Kressler, daughter of Philip ? Kressler. Herman and Eva had the following children:

12	i.	Killian (1780-1838)
13	ii.	?

3. Johann Heinrich "Henrich" Junghen(n) aka Henry Younkin. Last name Americanized to "Youngken" and other variants. Last name also spelled Jungken, Yunken, Youngkin, Youngken, Yonkin, etc. Born on 31 Jan 1717 in Hesse, Germany. Johann Heinrich died in Haycock Twp., Bucks, Pennsylvania on 20 Feb 1787; he was 70. Buried in Kellers Lutheran, Church Cemetery, Bedminster, PA.

Johann Heinrich arrived in Philadelphia, Pa. in 1750, from Niederasphe near Siegen, Germany about 70 miles ESE of Cologne. Within a year of his arrival he advertised in a German paper that he was returning to Germany and indeed did go himself in 1753. He returned to America in 1754 on the sailing ship Friendship, at which time he brought Johannes "John" Junghen with him from Niederasphe.

4. ii. Johannes "John" Junghen (born circa 1738) - born in Niederasphe, Germany, and immigrated to America in 1754

When he was 36, Henrich married Catharina Scherer, daughter of Henry Scherer, on 25 July 1753, in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Upper Saucon, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. Catharina died in 1825 in Bedminster Township, Bucks County, PA. Marriage: shown in the records of Blue Church - St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Congregation, Saucon Twp., Lehigh Co., Pa. See file. Source L. Posey. Marriage: "Penn. Vital Records Vol 1 = Heinrich JUNGHEN and .....Scherer, both of Nackamixin were entered under the year 1756 in the "St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran Church records, Lehigh Co., PA. 1750-1764" She was born in 1726 in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Henrich served in the Rev War as per D.A.R. Patriot list (source: L. Posey)
Henrich's will was written on 18 Jan 1787 (see file for copy). The tombstone next to Henry's "Elisabeth Junghen b. 21 June 1789 d. 8 Jan 1797" (this is son Rudolph's daughter).

22	ix.	Catharina (1776-1865)

Third Generation

4. Johannes “John” Junghen. Born circa 1738 in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany, immigrated to America in 1754

On 23 Jan 1759, when John was 23, he married Catharine [Catharina] Killicher, in Blue Mt. Church, now Zion, Strausstown, PA. John was married in the Blue Mt. Church (now Zion) Strausstown, Pa. Marriage: "Penn. Vital Records Vol 1 = Johann JUNGHEN and Catharina KILICHER were entered under the marriage date of, 23 Jan 1759 in the "St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran Church records, Lehigh Co., PA. 1750-1764". YFNB Vol 1 #1 (Anita Eyster article ' Junghen Family of Bucks County): There is a baptism for his son George in 1766. They had one child:

23 i. George Junghen – baptized 1766 in St. Pauls Evangelical Lutheran Church

Note by Mark Younkin dated 5-29-2025. Youngkin edited this section on Johannes “John” and moved it to the Third Generation. Johann Heinrich "Henrich" Junghen aka Henry Younkin arrived in Philadelphia, Pa. in 1750, from Niederasphe near Marburg, Germany. Within a year of his arrival, he advertised in a German paper that he was returning to Germany. He returned in 17 September 1753 on the sailing ship "Richard & Mary". In her 1994 article titled "Arrivals in the Port of Philadelphia", Donna (Younkin) Logan shows Johann Henrich Juncken and Johann Ernst Juncken travelling to Germany on the same ship (YFNB 1994 Vol. 5 No. 1 page 9). This may be the Ernest Junghen discussed by Anita Eyster in her 1938 article. Johann Heinrich returned to Philadelphia on 21 October 1754 with Johannes “John” Junghen on the sailing ship "Friendship". John is first reported in the Christmas 1937 edition of the Younkin Family News Bulletin (YFNB 1937 Vol. 1 No. 1 page 1) by Anita L. Eyster (reprinted in YFNB January 1990 Vol. 1. No 1 on page 8). On page 1, Anita Eyster said the following about John.

> Henry’s son by his first marriage, JOHN JUNGHEN, left behind in Germany, came over in 1754. We have little information concerning him, but we may suppose that he was 16 years old when he arrived and 21 when he married Catharine Killicher in 1759. He is mentioned as the oldest son in his father’s will in 1787, but we have no further notice of him except the baptism of a son George in 1766. He therefore went to Somerset County at an early date.

The last two sentences erroneously refer to Johann Heinrich’s first son John born in 1756 by wife Catharina Scherer in America. Later in Younkin Family News Bulletin Vol. I No. 2 dated April 30, 1938, Anita Eyster discusses John in her article titled "Total Years of These Five People 451." On page 1, Anita Eyster said the following about John.

> Henry Junghen or Younkin was a widower when he arrived in America in 1753, with a son Ernest Junghen, who supposedly died a short time later, as he never was heard from again. In 1754, another son arrived in America, John Junghen…

There are discrepancies in this story. Ernst Juncken was on the sailing ship Richard & Mary in 1753 during the voyage to Germany (not to America). Ernest is not Henry’s son. Henry returned to America on 21 October 1754 with Johannes Junghen aka "John" on the sailing ship Friendship. There is no documentation he was a son.

In her 1991 article titled Three immigrant brothers or…?, Donna (Younkin) Logan discussed the problems with "John" aka "John Michael" in the genealogy of Henry Younkin. Henry’s will dated 1787 only mentions one first born son named John and he was born in America in 1756 to Catharina Scherer. This was the John that moved to Somerset County and had children with Catharina (last name unknown). Donna concluded her article by saying the genealogy for "John" from Germany is confusing and more research is needed.

During May 2025, Mark Youngkin thoroughly inspected the Niederasphe Parish Register in the years 1733 to 1750, a 17-year span, looking for an earlier marriage/child for Johann Heinrich Junghen. Youngkin understands a new Pastor reorganized the records from circa 1725 to 1755 that had been neglected by the previous Pastor. The records from this time are legible and organized with summary pages for marriages and baptisms. Other marriage and baptism records for the Junghen family occur in the register during this time–so records are not missing. Youngkin found NO marriage record for Johann Heinrich Junghen (1717-1787) or record of a son.

In her 1991 article, Donna (Younkin) Logan said "John" from Germany could be Heinrich’s brother. No brother younger than Heinrich (born 1717) has been found in the records. There are two older brothers unaccounted for in the records in Niederasphe–brothers Johann Herman baptized in 1706, and Johannes baptized in 1709. Both brothers are listed on the 1719-1720 Niederasphe Church confirmation roll. These two older brothers would have been 48 and 45 years old in 1754 when "John" immigrated to America.

The older age conflicts with accounts that "John" was about 16 years old when he emigrated and married Catharina Killicher in America when he was about 21 years old. Both brothers left Niederasphe because no records of marriage, baptism, or burial can be found in the Niederasphe Parish Register for the brothers.

Youngkin surmises that the person called "John" who immigrated to America on the sailing ship Friendship on 21 October 1754 was Heinrich's nephew by his older brother Johann Caspar (1697-1770). When Henrich returned to Niederasphe in 1753, he would have stayed in the family House No. 55 with his older brother Caspar. Caspar married Elisabeth Michel in 1722, and he inherited House No. 55 after Father Johannes Junghen died in 1727. Three of Caspar's sons are unaccounted for in the records in Niederasphe: Johannes baptized 1730, Caspar baptized 1733, and Johannes baptized 1736. A likely candidate for "John" who immigrated to America on 21 October 1754 is Heinrich's nephew Johannes Junghen–aged 18 (baptized 31 March 1736), the youngest living son of Heinrich's older brother Caspar Junghen and wife Elisabeth Michel.

5. John Junghen. Born abt 1743 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, of Herman and Magdalena. John died in Nockamixon, Bucks, PA. bef Apr 1829; he was 86. YFNB Vol 1 #1 -'JUNGHEN FAMILY OF BUCKS COUNTY' also Apr 30, 1938, YFNB Pg. 2 Col. 3 & 4. Bucks County Estate book C-176; exec. Nicholas, oldest son.
He was a trustee for the Nockamixon Lutheran church 1788-1798.

On 12 Mar 1771 when John was 28, he married Anna Maria 'Mary' Essig, in St. Michael's, Zion, Philadelphia, PA. Anna Maria 'Mary' died bef Sep 1831 in Nockamixon, Bucks, PA.

They had the following children:

24	i.	John Nicholas (1772-1848)
25	ii.	John Michael (1773-~1850)
26	iii.	Abraham (1775-1849)
27	iv.	Anna Catharina (1778-1873)
28	v.	John (~1789-)
29	vi.	Mary Magdalena (1781-1873)
30	vii.	Elisabeth (1807-1840)
31	viii.	Margaret (-<1829)

6. Abraham Junghen. Born on 2 Oct 1745 of Herman and Magdalena. Abraham died in Tinicum, Bucks, PA. abt Aug 1790; he was 44. Bucks County Administration book A - 66. Per letter of Feb. 27, 1936, from Charles Arthur Younkin to John E. Younkin, of Connellsville, PA, (courtesy of Elaine Younkin Clark): "As your father was Eli Younkin and he had a brother Messmore whose son Carl Younkin did live at Belle Vernon Pa. and a daughter Mrs. Soisson at South C'ville, Pa. You are right, your father's brother John was killed on the railroad he being a RR engineer. His death was many years ago. His son John W. Younkin still lives at Smithfield Pa. and your uncle Andrew Younkin was married to the widow of my own uncle Dempsey Younkin and a daughter Edna lives in Chicago, Ill.... Now your grandfather Jacob Younkin better known as (Devil) Jake Younkin am told that he derived this name in this way. That he lived near the Jersey Church in Somerset Co. and was in the habit of getting drunk quite frequently, and on these sprees would cut some great capers. On one occasion am told he climbed on top of barn roof and had a great time. Also that there were several Jacob Younkin of his day and each had a distinguishing nickname. Your grandfather was married to Sarah Tannehill and the father of your grandfather, or in other words your great-grandfather was John Younkin or better known as Yankee John Younkin. His wife was Nancy Hartzell. Your grandfather had a brother John H. Younkin who was the father of Mrs. John Forsythe on the Vanderbilt Road. Mrs. Forsythe has a daughter Mrs. Ronald Earle who lives with her. Now here is where the missing link comes in as yet we have been unable to make any connection as to where the above Yankee John comes in although he lived and died in Somerset Co.... It is claimed by Mrs. Forsythe and Mrs. Earle that the father of Yankee John Younkin as John also, which is reasonable to believe. In time we hope [to] state definitely."

BIOGRAPHY OF JONAS (1803 - Aft 1880) AND MARTHA (PRINGEY) (1806 - 1898) YOUNKIN
Revised - November 17, 1995 by RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

Jun 21, 1803 Jonas Younkin, eighth child of ten born to Jacob and Johanna (Nicola) Younkin. Born in Somerset County, PA.

Mar 17, 1806 Martha Pringey, fourth child of eight born to John and Abigail (Rhoads) Pringey. Born in PA.

1817 – "In 1817 Professor Charles Wheeler and Rev. Dr. Estep organized a church of immersed believers at Somerset. This was the Baptist church of Somerset. So far as is known, its charter members were Mary Ogle, Mary Morrison, Mary Graft (the three Marys), Jacob Graft, Isaac and Elizabeth Husband, Samuel Trent, Catherine Carr, Jonas and Martha Younkin, George Probst, Alexander and Nellie Hunter, Susan Stewart, Peggy May, Betsey Kimberly, Sallie Lichtenberger, Dr. Norman and Eliner Bruce, Peter and Barbara Loehr, Jacob and Nancy Sayler. This church as organized continued as a Baptist church until September 20, 1829, when it was reorganized as a Disciples of Christ, or Christian, church, and it is one of the very oldest church organizations of that denomination." (History of Bedford and Somerset Counties Pennsylvania with Genealogical and Personal History, by E. Howard Blackburn, published 1906.)

About 1824 Marriage of Jonas and Martha. Record of marriage has not been found. This approximate date based upon birth of first child (below).

Aug 25, 1826 Birth of daughter, Elvina. Oct 25, 1828 Notice in the Somerset Herald, Tuesday, Oct 28, 1828. "DIED. On Saturday last, an infant daughter of Mr. Jonas Younkin, of this borough."
Nov 15, 1828 Son, Uriah, born in Somerset County, PA

1830 The Feb 1963 Laurel Messenger lists Jonas in 1830 as a physician and as a minister and teacher at the Lutheran and Reformed school and church at the crossroads on the David Ream tract at the village of Ursina in Lower Turkeyfoot, Somerset County. Jonas practiced 'medicine' such as it was in those days and generally called himself a 'physician'. However, medicine was much less formalized than it is today. There were no medical schools and one was taught by the apprentice system. “Medicines” were generally concocted from natually growing herbs by the individual practitioner. Being a ‘physician’ was self-proclained. Moreover, it was generally not a full-time occupation then. It was common and often necessary for a physician to supplement his income with other types of work. For Jonas, in addition to his work in 1830 mentioned above , another occupation which he pursued intermittently was farming. In fact, on the 1860 US Census forms Jonas listed his occupation as “farmer” , but in 1870 he called himself a physician.

Jan 20, 1831 Son, Archibald, born in Somerset County, PÅ

1831 - Mentioned in The Discipline, A Monthly Magazine of Christian Literature, Vol. IV (July-Dec. 1886) for his role in the founding of the Church of Christ movement in Somerset County. The text says he and Harmon Husband “were the first elders. Both could preach pretty well... But emigration thinned them rapidly, the reaper Death claimed his share, “the beggarly elements of the world” devoured others, and drink got the better of the Doctor, who then went to Iowa for a grave, and so, in the latter part of the fifties, the candlestick was removed.”

About 1825 - Abt 1851. Jonas ad Martha lived in Somerset County, Pennsylvania. Deed records indicate they bought and sold a number of pieces of property all in Somerset County, PA between 1827 and 1851. It is not clear which of these properties they lived in and which they rented out. The only other information on their actual residences comes from Pennsylvania Federal Census Records starting in 1840. (Jonas’ name has not been found in the 1830 PA Census Index).

Jun 10, 1833 Son, Walter, born in Somerset County, PA

Sep 08, 1835 Son, Alexander, born in Somerset County, PA

Mar 18, 1838 Son, Edwin, born in Somerset County, PA

May 31, 1840 Daughter, Emily Ogol, born in Somerset County, PA

1840. US Census. Family was living in Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset, PA.

May 08, 1843 Daughter, Mary Elizabeth, born in Somerset Conty, PA

July 31, 1845 Son, Aaron Schrock, born in Somerset County, PA

May 26, 1848 Son, Austin, born in Somerset County, PA

Oct 02,1850 US Census. Family was living at Milford, Somerset County, PA. Jonas’ real estate was valued at $1200. Ages of parents and nine living children were:
Jonas - 46 Archibald - 19 Emily - 10
Martha - 44 Walter - 16 Mary E. - 7
Uriah - 21 Alexander - 14 Aaron - 4
Edwin - 12 Austin - 2
All children were at home although Archibald soon moved out on his own.

Abt 1852 - At undetermined date apparently in early fifties, the family decided to move west. They are believed to have stopped first in Henry County, Illinois. According to a letter written twenty years later by Edwin, this move occurred while he was twelve (before March 18, 1851).It is not clear that Archibald ever moved to Illinois,or if he did he could not have stayed there more than a year before breaking away. Similarly for Uriah, who in November 1852 married his first wife in Pennsylvania.

1852-58 - Abt 1858 - The parents and all the children except the four oldest sons moved to southeast Iowa. Again according to biography of Edwin, when the family left Illinois they moved first to West Liberty, Muscatine Co., Iowa. Walter and Alexander stayed behind and settled in Henry County.

1859 - A plot map this date for part of Pleasant Valley Township in Johnson County shows a 160 pllot of land with the name on it, Jonas Yonkin (as spelled). The land records for this plot were apparently lost in a courthouse fire.

1860 Census - June 19 - Jonas and Martha were living together in Pleasant Valley Township, Johnson County, Iowa. Jonas was listed as a farmer with real estate valued at $1200 and personal property at $250. Family members living with parents were:
Jonas - 55 Emily - 19 Aaron - 15
Martha - 55 Mary - 17 Austin - 13
Uriah, 32, was living on a nearby farm with his wife and two children.
Archibald, 29, and his family had moved to Iowa City in 1857.
Jonas also had living on his farm a 30 year old farm laborer and his 25 year old wife.

Mar 12, 1863 - Deed shows M. and R. March of Johnson County sold to Jonas Younkin of Johnson County, west half of Lot 7, Block 65 in Iowa City. R. Libby has identified this lot as on College Street, between Dubuque and Linn Streets.

March 2, 1866 - A deed was filed in the Johnson County Courthouse, transferring property from Jonas and Martha Younkin to Margaret Ellis which stated in part, "……we, Jonas YOUNKIN and Martha YOUNKIN, wife of said Jonas YOUNKIN, of Johnson County,……." This is the last known date for which specific evidence exists that Jonas and Martha were still married. No known deed filed beyond this date carried their joint names.

May 26, 1866 - Youngest child, Austin, was 18. So around this general time Jonas and Martha no longer had any family responsibilities to hold them together.

Abt early 1867 - Daughter Emily O., writing in 1894-5 for husband Zimri's Civil War Pension File, describes a series of events that took place in the 60's. She specifically stated she was living at home in Iowa City with her family including Jonas at the times Aug 1863, Aug 1864, and early 1866 and for about a year thereafter. It is assumed they lived there continuously from at least 1860. But she stated, "about a year later (from when she and her husband returned from early Mississippi in early 1866), my father then left Iowa City".

April 16, 1867 - A deed was filed in the Johnson County Courthouse transferring property from Martha Younkin to Z. H. Howe. Of the many, many property transactions since 1829 involving this Younkin couple, all have listed Jonas or Jonas and Martha as either buyer or seller. This is the first one in only Martha's name.

May 17, 1867 - District Court Records, Johnson County, Iowa, Book M, page 157, Jonas Younkin vs Iowa City: And now at this day to wit: May 17, 1867 came the said parties by their attorneys and on motion this cause is dismissed at the costs of the plaintiff. It is therefore considered by the court that the said defendant go hence without delay and recover of said plaintiff his costs in this behalf expended taxed at $_____.

[The above two 1867 entries are taken as evidence that the separation of Martha and Jonas occurred in early 1867. To date no record has been found of an actual divorce, although apparently they never resided together again.]

1870 Census - On 30 July, 1870, Jonas, listed as a 67 year old physician, was now living in Lyons City, Clinton County, Iowa, with a new Younkin, 40 year old Jane, who is 'Keeping House'. If he has married again as it appears, it obviously means Martha and he are divorced. Also in the house is a 13 year old girl, Lydis (Lydia?) Harris. As a first guess, it is assumed Lydis is Jane's daughter by a previous marriage. Lydis was born in Illinois, Jane (Harris?) Younkin in Pennsylvania.

Martha, on 27 July, was still living in Johnson County. But she has moved from Pleasant Valley to Iowa City, and was listed 'At Home' in the household of one of her daughters, 30 year old Emily. Also present are Emily's two daughters, Effie, age 4, and Laura, age 1. (Laura was apparently previously unknown). Emily is listed as "Keeping House" for 36 year old Jan H. How. [Apparently there is a census error. it should be Zimri H. Howe}. It is not clear whether Martha is living with Emily's family or conversely.

Feb 25, 1876 - A Quick Claim Deed transferred Lot 22, Block 7 in the Lyons addition to Iowa City from Martha Younkin to A.C. Younkin.
This is the second deed filed in Johnson County in which Martha was the only seller.

1876 and 1877 - A Quick Claim Deed filed in Johnson County, Iowa on February 25, 1876 stated Martha was living in Kansas City , Jackson County, Missouri.
Also, in a November 9, 1877 affidavit requiring Martha's signature acknowledging her Civil War Veteran son Walter's death, it was also stated Martha was living in Kansas City. Martha was probably living with one of her children at this time because she stated she was not interested in any share of Walter's Civi War pension. No evidence has been found as to specifically who she lived with in Kansas City.
Son Aaron was living in Kansas City in 1873. However Aaron as well as sister Emily O. (Younkin) Howe were both living in Beatrice, Gage, NE in 1880 but Martha was not listed on the US Census records of either.

1880 Census - The US Census listed Jonas "At Leisure" living in Columbus Junction, Louisa Co., Iowa in the household of his youngest son, Austin, age 32. And with a D after his name for divorced.

Martha's residence has not been found in the 1880 census.

If the divorce given after Jonas' name refers to Martha, it must have occurred beteen very late 1866 and 1870. See deed above. If it refers to Jane, it must have occurred between 1870 and 1880.
No data has been located on Martha after November 1877 except for her death in September 1898 (below).

Oct 31, 1894 - No record has been found of Jonas beyond the 1880 US Census. However, in the US Pension File of Zimri H. Howe, there is a General Affidavit signed this date by A. C. (Archibald) Younkin regarding Zimri, his brother-in-law. The Affidavit states in passing, "I know that my father Dr. J. Younkin prescribed for him [Zimri] part of the time from 1863 to 1874}..... Dr. Younkin is now dead". This gives upper limit on the date of death of Jonas Younkin.

Sep 19, 1898 - Cemetery records from the Beatrice Cemetery, Beatrice, Gage County, NE state that Martha P. Younkin, born 1806, was buried there this date. Also buried in the same plot is her son, Uriah, and other known members of his family. In another plot in the same cemetery are her daughter Emily O. (Younkin) Howe, her husband Zimri Howe, and a brother and sister of Zimri.

UNANSWERED QUESTIONS:
1. 1851 to 1857. There is no information during this period. Assume in Henry County, Illinois.
2. Formal evidence for probable separation or divorce about early 1867 has not been found;
3. Where and when did he die.?
4. Where was Martha form 1877 to 1898?
5.Who was Jane Younkin and how long did Jonas live with her?

Note: Much of the research for data in Iowa City was done by Robert J. Libby of that city.

Isaac was listed on the 1830 census as living in Somerset Twp. (and this is much too early for the other Rebecca and Isaac). Olive Duff: Minutes of the Jersey Baptist Church states that Samuel, Isaac's brother moved west about 1850 and asked for a letter of dismissal. Isaac is also listed as a member of this church in these minutes. Olive Duff:

Aaron Schrock's entry in the 1906 book History of Bedford and Somerset Counties: Aaron Schrock, youngest son of John Schrock (2), was born near Berlin, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, January 30, 1805. His education was an excellent one, being conducted in both German and English, and at the proper time he was apprenticed to a blacksmith to learn a trade which was in great demand in those days. He became an expert in this as also in the manufacture of fine edge tools, for which his reputation was unsurpassed. He was always ready to take his full share of responsibility in conducting the affairs of his town or the country at large, and was for fifteen years a justice of the peace, was captain of a home military company, and held many minor offices. His political opinions were those of the Whig party, and later those of the Republicans. His religion was that of the Disciples or Christian church. He married, May 15, 1825, Catherine Meyers, born near Meyersdale, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, October 10, 1805, died December 14, 1840, daughter of Christian Meyers, who was of German descent and a farmer. Mr. Meyers was one of the Baptist Brethren or Dunkards. Aaron and Catherine (Meyers) Schrock were the parent of four children: 1. Caroline, died at the age of sixty-five years; 2.) Edward born October 8, 1828, in Somerset county Pennsylvania, resided there fifty years. The first members were Josiah Gross and wife, John F. Kregar and wife, Jonathan Dumbauld and wife, A. W. Faidley and wife, Henry Kregar and wife, Andrew Schrock and wife, and Susan Younkin. A church was built in 1856, at a cost of $1,600."

In the U.S. census of 1850, Susan and Andrew Schrock lived in Upper Turkeyfoot Twp. Her father John, age 56, was in the household. The Schrock residence that year was five dwellings away from Charles and Adaline (Harbaugh) Minerd.

According to a manuscript note in Mark Miner's possession, "WPA Records of Old Burial Grounds on Andy Schrock Farm, Upper Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, PA," the Schrocks had a burying ground on their farm later owned by Elmer Pletcher. According to the note: "Survey was made of this burial ground due to the diphtheria epidemic and dynsentery that prevailed in this district in the early 1870s. The Connellsville Keystone Courier reported that she was "Johnny Younkin's Mother" and that she had been "going down the track with a boquet of flowers to place on her son's grave." Burial was in Hill Grove Cemetery, Connellsville.

Per letter of Feb. 27, 1936, from Charles Arthur Younkin to John E. Younkin, of Connellsville, PA, (courtesy of Elaine Younkin Clark): "As your father was Eli Younkin and he had a brother Messmore whose son Carl Younkin did live at Belle Vernon Pa. and a daughter Mrs. Soisson at South C'ville, Pa. You are right, your father's brother John was killed on the railroad he being a RR engineer. His death was many years ago. His son John W. Younkin still lives at Smithfield Pa. and your uncle Andrew Younkin was married to the widow of my own uncle Dempsey Younkin and a daughter Edna lives in Chicago, Ill.... Now your grandfather Jacob Younkin better known as (Devil) Jake Younkin am told that he derived this name in this way. That he lived near the Jersey Church in Somerset Co. and was in the habit of getting drunk quite frequently, and on these sprees would cut some great capers. On one occasion am told he climbed on top of barn roof and had a great time. Also that there were several Jacob Younkin of his day and each had a distinguishing nickname. Your grandfather was married to Sarah Tannehill and the father of your grandfather, or in other words your great-grandfather was John Younkin or better known as Yankee John Younkin. His wife was Nancy Hartzell. Your grandfather had a brother John H. Younkin who was the father of Mrs. John Forsythe on the Vanderbilt Road. Mrs. Forsythe has a daughter Mrs. Ronald Earle who lives with her. Now here is where the missing link comes in as yet we have been unable to make any connection as to where the above Yankee John comes in although he lived and died in Somerset Co.... It is claimed by Mrs. Forsythe and Mrs.

Earle that the fathe of Yankee John Younkin as John also, which is reasonable to believe. In time we hope [to] state definitely."

205. Jonas H. Younkin. DYL Notebook "Jacob, Vol. I, Tab 350 - Born on 21 Mar 1825 in PA.

In 1854, he served as a trustee of the local Methodist Episcopal Church. That year, his cousin John and Sarah (Ansell) Minerd sold a small parcel of their farm in Hexebarger (25/160ths acre) to the church trustees. The tract was near the Minerds' home, along what is now the Old Bethel Road, cutting through their farm on a northwest-southeast orientation. The other trustees at that time were Jacob Minerd III, Jonas' brother Harmon Younkin, Samuel McMillen and Daniel N. Beal. The church was named "Mt. Zion" though it's unknown whether a building actually was constructed. The move to create a church of the Methodist denomination here may have been driven by competition from the new Old Bethel Church of God, which had been constructed about a quarter of a mile away and whose congregants included members of the Younkin families.

IN. Buried: Union Ceme. This Isaac does NOT belong to Jacob and Johannah as he was definitely born after Jacob died according to all of the census records he was born in 1814 not 1805. 1860 Census: this Isaac is found in Warren Twp., Clinton Co., Indiana, living next door is a Michael WALTERS who might be Rebecca's brother (according to Olive DUFF). Olive Duff : Deed book 11 page 846/47 deed 867 (see copy in files): settlement of the John Penrod, Sr. Estate - Book 13 page 82/83 John Penrod Jr. deeded this same property to Isaac and Margaret YOUNKIN in 20 Feb 1833. Isaac and Margaret then sell this same property (deed Book 13 ages 83/84) to Michael KURTZ on 16 Mar 1833. There are no further transactions of any kind for an Isaac. Olive Duff: has a copy of a court release (never executed) made out by John Gebhart for Frederick Younkin (Isaac's guardian) and it states the wife of Isaac as Margaret. From an old newspaper (Somerset Herald) was listed as the date of Isaac Younkin and Margaret Penrod's marriage as 21 Oct 1828 by the Rev. Keiffer. Isaac was listed on the 1830 census as living in Somerset Twp. (and this is much too early for this Rebecca and Isaac). Somerset Hist. Soc. has the WALTER FILE: which gives the exact date of birth and is quite an extensive account of the descendants of Isaac and Rebecca. This file was prepared by Charles R. SHULTZ and other with the help of a Mamie [YOUNKIN?] PRATHER, daughter of Singleton. The Eli that is living in the 1850 Census with this Isaac is in all likelyhood Isaac's younger brother. In 1836 when Issac was 21, he married Rebecca Kitzmaller Walter, daughter of Michael Walter Jr. & Rebecca Kitzmiller, in Somerset, PA. Born in 1812 in PA. Rebecca Kitzmaller died in Warren Twp., Clinton, Indiana on 13 Sep 1875; she was 63. They had the following children:

RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

1. Archibald - Somerset County, Pennsylvania

January 20, 1831 Born at Milford Township, Somerset County, PA. Third child of ten born to Jonas and Martha (Pringey) Younkin. His father was a physician of the time, who supplemented his income by also being a teacher, minister, and farmer.

1831 - 1850. It is assumed Archibald's family lived in Somerset County throughout this period and Archibald resided with them. Deed records indicate Jonas and Martha Younkin bought and sold a number of pieces of property in the County between 1827 and 1851. It is not clear which of these properties the family lived on and which they rented out. The only information on their actual residences comes from Pennsylvania Federal Census Records. Jonas' name has not been found in the 1830 PA Census Index. In 1840 Jonas was listed in Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, and in 1850 in Milford Township in the same county.

1850 Surprisingly, Archibald, a young man of 19, was tabulated twice during the US Census of 1850. The first tabulation, taken on August 01, showed him living in Somerset Township, Somerset County, in the household of a 30 year old merchant, Samuel Walker. His occupation was given as clerk. A second tabulation, taken on October 02, showed him living with his parents and all his siblings in Milford Township. Again his occupation was given as clerk.
Perhaps he had a summer or temporary job during the first listing – he may even have been working for Walker. Since Somerset Township was about ten miles from Milford, not a trivial distance by horse, he may have found it convenient to take room and board in the former.

Abt. 1852. Jonas and Martha and their children moved west, apparently settling first in Henry County, Illinois. There is no direct evidence that Archibald moved with them. He may have stayed in Somerset County or thereabouts to work.

Abt early 1852. Archibald applied for admission to Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, PA. Date of application unknown. He listed his home as Henry County, Illinois. He may have remained in Pennsylvania and merely used his parents residence in Henry as a mailing address.

II. Archibald - Gettysburg, Adams County, Pennsylvania

1852-53 School year College records show he was enrolled as a student at Gettysburg College, Gettysburg, PA for this one school year only. The College was very small then, with only four instructors and fifty students and Archibald lived at a dormitory (room 22-C) on campus. Much later statement by his wife, Mary, said he started to study for the Lutheran ministry but then decided not to enter that field.
Middletown, Washington County, Maryland

III. Mary - Chambersburg, Franklin County, Pennsylvania

April 25, 1835 Mary was born in Chambersburg, the first known child of William and Elizabeth (Stauffer) Jones. According to their ages as given on the 1850 and 1860 US Census forms, both parents must have been born within a year of 1812. The 1880 US Census form for Archibald and family gives Pennsylvania as the state of birth for each of Mary's parents.
As a small child Mary lived in Green Village, Pennsylvania. A sister, Ann, was born in Pennsylvania in 1845. The 1850 US Census records the family as now living in Hagerstown, Maryland, with Mary, 15, who was attending school.. A second sister, Clara, was born in Maryland in about June-July 1854, Her father owned a machine shop and invented several types of farm machinery.

Late Fall - early Winter 1953 Archibald and Mary met Mary at the home of one of her friends, the Boileaus, of Middletown, Maryland, "a little more then a year before the wedding".

March 01, 1855 Married Mary at her parent's home in Hagerstown, Maryland. He was 24 and Mary almost 20. Ceremony performed by Rev. F. R. Anspach of St John's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hagerstown (still there today). Bridesmaid, Sally Byers, who became life-long friend of Mary. Best man, Mr. Shober (Snober?). From Mary's description of the wedding it appears no member of Archibald's family attended (although they were all living in western Illinois and it would have been a long trip in those days).March 07, 1855 Brief announcement of the wedding on page 3 of the Hagerstown, Maryland, Herald of Freedom & Torchlight this date. Groom described as "Mr. A. C. Younkin, of Middletown, Md." [Archibald apparently made Middletown his home soon after leaving Gettysburg College in the summer of 1853.]

III. Lavansville, Somerset County Pennsylvania

March 03, 1855. Immediately after the marriage, they left by stagecoach for Lavansville, Somerset, PA where, according to Mary, he "took over a dry goods business". Lavansville is only about ten miles as the crow flies from the town of Somerset. [It is clear he had this position all lined up before the wedding, apparently with the help of experience gained working before college for Samuel Walker and/or afterwards, at Midtown, N]

January 03, 1856 Son, William Melville, born in Lavansville.

1857 As Mary put it later, "they got the western fever". Archibald was 26, Mary 22.

IV. Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa

1857 With son William they traveled to Iowa City via the railroad (later named the Rock Island) recently completed from Davenport. Mary said because of the railroad they had a much easier trip than those who had come to Iowa City the year before. They had great trouble finding a suitable home at first.

1857 - 1865 No evidence has yet been found of the family during this period except for the birth and death of children. The US Census forms were noted for their missing citizens during this period and Archibald and his family were not listed on the Index for the 1860 census.

July 09, 1857 Son, Howard Ellis born in Iowa City.
September 07, 1858 Death of Howard Ellis.

March 04, 1859 Daughter Lulu born.
July 18, 1861 Son Edgar born
May 26, 1863 Daughter Estelle born.

November 8, 1864 Elected Treasurer of Johnson County for one year term, January 1 to December 31, 1865.

September 29, 1865 Daughter, Helen Byers "Nellie" born.

November 1865. Reelected to second term as County Treasurer - January 1, 1866 to December 31.1867.

April 17, 1866 Deed Records of Johnson County, (Vol 27, page 63) show Archibald purchased a lot in Iowa City at the southeast corner of College and Dodge Streets (Lot 4 Block 22), current address: 701 East College Street According to Iowa City historian Irving Weber, Archibald then had a large two story Gothic house constructed on the site.

November 1867. Reelected to a third term as County Treasurer - January 1, 1868 to December 31, 1869.

January 06, 1868. Son, Arthur Jones, born.

1868 Iowa State Census. Archibald and family were residing in the above Gothic house at College and Dodge.

Today this house is among the historical old homes of Iowa City. It is called the Younkin-Negus house. (The Negus family bought the house in 1926 and occupied it continuously ever since.
It is still in excellent condition, and together with other historical old homes has been featured in several newspaper articles in recent decades as well as a book, Nineteenth Century Home Architecture of Iowa City, by Margaret Keyes. Its location is currently being considered for a National Historic District.

June 7, 1869 Archibald and Mary sold the house to a neighbor, Margaret E. Tucker (Vol 31, page 100). Yet other evidence indicates Archibald's family was still living on College Street on January 25, 1870 and probably in Aug 1870. This implies they moved to another house on the same block of College Street. It has recently been discovered that in 1890 (three years after most of the family had moved to San Diego) the two adult children who stayed behind were living at 706 College (not a rental neighborhood). So this may have been the house the Younkin family occupied first after moving from 701.

1869 - 1872 Member of the Board of Curators (Directors) of the Iowa State Historical Society

January 24, 1870. Death of daughter Estelle. A funeral notice for her stated it would be held at the College Street residence of A. C. and Mary Younkin [Underlining - RLY]

August 27, 1870 US Census lists A. C. as a "Dealer in Lumber" with assets of $5000 in real estate and $1000 in personal property. Family members were listed as (Census ages may be a year or so in error):
Archibald - 40 William M. - 14 Nellie (Helen) - 4
Mary - 34 Lulu - 10 Arthur - 2
Eddie - 8

The address of the family was not given but just three entries away on the Census page was the family of Aaron Tucker and wife Margaret age 30, who had purchased 701 College in 1869.

March 1874 Admitted to the Bar in Iowa City. There is no evidence that Archibald ever studied Law in college, so apparently he must have qualified by passing an examination.

February 25, 1876 Archibald bought the residence at 520 South Johnson Street, Iowa City, for eight hundred dollars from his mother, Martha Younkin. Johnson County deed stated Martha was living at Kansas City, Jackson County, Missouri at the time.

Among the photographs of Archibald's family members handed down for several generations was included a 9 x 11 enlargement of a house mounted in an elaborate frame hand carved by son William. Archibald's daughter, Helen Nellie told Robert LeFevre Younkin many years later that this was the house Archibald's family lived at the time they moved to San Diego in 1887. With implication they had lived in it for some time. (House was legally described as Lot 22 in Block No. 7 in the Lyons addition to Iowa City.) Robert J. Libby has recently identified the house in the photo as one that was located at 520 South Johnson. (It has subsequently been torn down and a three story apartment building erected over the entire block.) But recent hard data indicates the family was living on Summit Street both in 1878 and 1880. There appears to be some conflict here regarding their Iowa City residences.

Archibald's parents Martha and Jonas, were living in Lyons Township according to the 1860 US Census. It has not yet been confirmed whether this is the house they lived in and so whether it was continuously occupied by Younkins over this period.

1878 – 79 Iowa City Directory. Listed were:
Younkin, A. C. res. Summit (St.), East Limits
Younkin, William M. same also,
Younkin & Younkin, attys, W 8 Clinton between Washington & College
Son William M. had graduated from the Law Department of the University of Iowa in 1877, with the degree of LL. B. Thus by the following year he had gone into partnership with his father.

June 26, 1880 US Census gave A. C.'s occupation as Attorney at Law. (Due to an error in filling out the census form, the occupation column is blank for family members except A. C.). The family was still intact, and still living on Summit Street. Ages of family members were given as:
Archibald - 49 William M - 24 Nellie (Helen) - 14
Mary - 45 Lou - 20 Arthur - 12
Eddie - 18
Lou had just graduated (1880) from the Collegiate Department of the University of Iowa with the degree of B. Ph. Also living with the family was a 20 year old white female, Ann Lowan(?). Because of faint ink, her occupation is very difficult to read on the US Census sheet, possibly, home servant.

1881 - ? Secretary (one of the three officers) of the Iowa City Packing Company, one of the chief businesses of Iowa City at the time. Business started in 1881. It was a meat packing company that specialized in hogs.

1881 - 1884 Minutes of the Iowa City School Board
March 17, 1881. A. C. Younkin obtained the greatest number of votes in the election of March 14, 1881 for a three year term. He was sworn in as a member of the Board this date.
June 14, 1883 and March 12, 1884. Minutes for these dates identify A. C. Younkin as President of the Board. On the second date his term expired and he did not run for reelection.

Jan 10. 1883 In the Iowa City Daily Republican this date under the heading 'Professional Cards', one the three ads reads:

A. C. Younkin
Attorney at Law

William M. Younkin dropped law for banking before the family left Iowa City in 1887. The absence of his name in this ad indicates he had dropped out of law by this date.

1885 Iowa State Census, Johnson County, Iowa (5th Ward, Iowa City)
Archibald C. 53 Lawyer Edgar C. 23
Mary C. 49 Nellie B. 19
Lulu 25 Teacher Arthur J. 16
29 listings away, still in the Ward of Iowa City, was Archibald and Mary's eldest son and his wife (married January 14, 1885).
William M. 29 Bookkeeper (Bank) Susan G. 27
Next door to the couple was Susan's mother, Christiana, 64 and three of her siblings, James S., 36, Farmer; Samuel F., 38, and Lizzie, 29. Her family had lived in Strasburg, PA until her father died in 1875.

1887 Archibald, 56, and Mary, 52, decided to pull up stakes in Iowa and move to San Diego, California.

April 23, 1887 Archibald and Mary sold their home (apparently at 520 South Johnson Street, Iowa City (Lot 22, Block No. 7 in Lyons Addition to Iowa City) to their son, William Melville Younkin, age 31, for the sum of one thousand dollars. Since William and his young family also moved to San Diego in 1887, it is not clear what happened to the house. William and his wife Susan sold a piece of property on August 05, 1887, but a legal description of it is not available at this time. Possibly it was passed to his younger brother, Arthur Jones Younkin, who in turn sold a property in 1905.

V. San Diego, San Diego County, California

1887 Archibald and Mary moved to San Diego with their eldest child, William Melville Younkin, his wife, Susan Gamble (LeFevre) and their first child, William LeFevre Younkin, age 2. Lulu and Edgar moved there the same year. Helen 'Nellie' in 1928, and Arthur remained in Iowa City for life.

Early years in San Diego The Younkins bought some orange groves and tried raising oranges as a business. But after three successive yeas when they lost their crop, they gave up and Archibald returned to the practice of law full time and William Melville went back to banking.

1887 - 1898 Archibald open an office and took up his practice of law soon after arriving in San Diego. From years for which the San Diego City and County Directory was available, his professional associations were given as:
1887 - Law firm of Hendrick & Younkin. E. W. Hendrick was a local leader who had been a state legislator, City Attorney, County Attorney, Member of the Library Board, and later a judge.
1889 - Law firm of Younkin and Sweet.
1892 - 1897 A. C. Younkin, Attorney at Law

1893 One of three Commissioners of Public Streets.

November 12, 1898. Died in San Diego at age 67. Obituary in Iowa Citizen of Iowa City reported November 18th, " he had suffered from cancer and a short time ago had submitted to an operation which was seemingly successful but there must have been later complications which caused the fatal result". A story related to RLY by Archibald's granddaughter Sadie many years later stated he had a growth on one hand which he kept picking at and it spread. The San Diego Union reported he had been in poor health for a year.

Although Archibald only lived in San Diego eleven years, he was well thought of in his profession. Thirty-five members of the San Diego Bar attended his funeral. Following this there was a general meeting of the Bar at which it was agreed to draft a resolution of respect in his memory, which was subsequently adopted.- Abt 1906 In the Iowa City Public Library there is an "Old Settlers Association Yearbook" which contains a letter from an A.J. Younkin dated 1906 living in San Diego . The writer states in passing that he lived in Johnson County for thirty years and moved away nearly ten years ago This could not be son Arthur Jones Younkin, first, because Iowa City Directories consistently showhium living there in these last ten years, and, second, San Diego directories show no A. J. Younkin there during this period. It is concluded the writer of the letter was A. C. Younkin.

Early 1899 After Archibald's death in November 1898, a letter written to Mary in May 1899 by her grandson William LeFevre Younkin (age 13) includes the statements:
1. Papa has been after me to write you for a long time, and
2. How are the folks back there?

These statements imply,
1. Mary left San Diego "a long time" (e.g., a few months) before May 1899.
2. She was visiting with family "back east ". At least as far back as Nebraska or Iowa.

1900 US Census. This Census shows Arthur, 32, and Loretta, 29 living in Lucas Township, Johnson County, Iowa. Living with them are his mother, Mary C. (65) and his brother, Edgar (38). The latter two had apparently come back to Iowa City for an extended visit in early 1899 after the death of her husband Archibald in San Diego, CA in late 1898.

1904 Iowa City Directory. For this year the directory lists:
A. J. and Loretta YOUNKIN -- grocer -- res. 404 S. Dubuque
Mrs. Mary YOUNKIN (widow A. C.) -- res. 909 E. Burlington
Edgar YOUNKIN -- bookeeper -- res. 909 E. Burlington

City Directories for Iowa City are available for the years., 1899-1900, 1901-1902, 1904, and 1907. It may be assumed they had not reached Iowa City by the 1899 printing date, they had returnid to San Diego by 1907 (see below). leaving only the 1901 printing date unaccounted for. It is uncertain whether they were abscent from Iowa City at the latter date or whether they were simply missed by the "census taker". Omissions were not uncommon.

1899 - 1906 The 1897 San Diego City and County Directory showed Mary's husband, Archibald, and son, Edgar, (wives were not listed at that time unless head of household) living at 640 22nd Street. A directory for 1898 is not available. Archibald died in San Diego in November 1898. Both Mary and Edgar are missing from the 1899 Directory (published in 1899 with cut-off date for publication apparently early 1899). They continued to be omitted from the 1901, 03, 04, and 05 San Diego Directories (No 1900 available). But in 1906 while Mary is still omitted, Edgar is listed as a homeowner (?) at 1931 Essex Avenue, San Diego. In 1907 both Edgar and Mary are listed as residing at the Essex address.

In lieu of any direct evidence to the contrary, Edgar and Mary are assumed to have lived away from San Diego for approximately seven years. Most probably they were in Iowa City with Arthur and Loie during this time, but trips from there to visit other relatives are not precluded.

1896 - Abt 1906

In the Iowa City Public Library there is an "Old Settlers Association Yearbook" which contains a letter from an A.J. Younkin dated 1906 living in San Diego . The writer states in passing that he lived in Johnson County for thirty years and moved away nearly ten years ago This could not be son Arthur Jones Younkin, first, because Iowa City Directories consistently showhium living there in these last ten years, and, second, San Diego directories show no A. J. Younkin there during this period. It is concluded the writer of the letter was A. C. Younkin.

1907 - 1927 Mary lived in San Diego with her son, Edgar, until his death in 1927.

1927 - 1936 Mary's daughter, Helen "Nellie" retired and returned from New York to take care of her mother. She bought a house at 3737 Granada and Mary lived there until her death in 1936

ZIMRI HOWLAND HOWE (1833 - 1911)

Revised Aug 23, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

I. Early Lives

May 23, 1833 Zimri Howland Howe was born to John H. and Katherine (Howland) Howe at Bridgewater, Washtenaw County, Michigan. Zimri had two known named siblings, John C. Howe (1826-1918) and C(or K)atherine E. Howe (1845-1918). Mention has also been made of a younger brother born in 1837.

1833-1861 A much later Army report describes him as a native of New York. Possibly he lived there for a while before moving to Iowa. (There is no question he was born in Michigan) No other information is available on Zimri until 1960.

May 31, 1840 Emily Ogol Younkin was born at Milford, Somerset County, PA, the seventh child of ten born to Dr. Jonas and Martha (Pringey) Younkin.

1840 US Census. Jonas was living in Turkeyfoot Township, Somerset County, PA.

1840 - Abt 1852 Emily's parents lived in Somerset County, PA. It is assumed Emily lived with the family.

Oct 2, 1850 US Census. The entire family consisting of the parents and all nine children including Emily listed as living at Milford, Somerset County, PA.

Abt 1852 Emily's family moved west to Henry County, Illinois in about 1852, and remained there until moving to southeastern Iowa.

Summer, 1861 According to a statement by Emily in Zimri's Civil War Pension File (CWPF), she and Zimri became acquainted in Muscatine Co., Iowa.

Before Sep 1861 Zimri was a resident of Davenport, Scott County, Iowa, according to the Report of the Adjutant General of the State of Iowa, 1863, vol I, (CWPF).

Height – 5 feet, 8 1/2 inches Complexion – light
Eyes – grey Hair – brown
Occupation – farmer

III. Civil War Period

1861–Fall 1865 Emily lived with her parents and younger siblings in Iowa City.

[Starting almost from the time he joined the Army, Zimri fell victim to a series of illnesses. These continued in various forms after he was discharged, lasting in fact, the rest of his life. He tried to carry on with his work, largely as a farmer, in spite of generally not being able to do a full day's work. Finally in 1887 he felt he was no longer able to work and applied for a Civil War Veterans pension.
Since he waited such a long time after his discharge, 25 years, the Department of Interior (DI) apparently had difficulty accepting that his illnesses were service related. There followed a period lasting years in which he was required to prove to the satisfaction of the DI that these illnesses has existed intermittently since discharge, and that they prevented him from working.
This led Zimri to submit numerous affidavits from friends and acquaintances who had known him at various times throughout the 25 years and beyond. They generally gave some description of Zimri's activities during the periods as well as stating how he was affected by these illnesses. This led to some contradictions, particularly differences of a year or two in some dates, as individuals sought to recall details from many years before.
Much of the description of Zimri and Emily's life given here has been gleaned from these Civil War reports – RLY].

Oct 1861 A Declaration for Original Invalid Pension filed by Zimri on Feb 26, 1895 lists a number of locations he was stationed at and dates while in the Union Army. In October 1861 he was stationed at Cairo, Illinois.

Feb 15, 1862 In the battle of Fort Donelson, TE, Zimri was wounded slightly (according to his later statement he took a buckshot in his left ear). The ear was probed at a field hospital., but no conclusion was found. Years later he reported deafness in that ear and periods when he would go almost blind – possibly as a result of the wound.

Aug 1864 Zimri became ill again and returned to Emily's home in Iowa City where her father treated him for the same ailments.

Abt Oct 1, 1865 The formal fighting in the war ended in the spring of 1865, but Zimri was held in the army and wrote Emily from Vidalia, Louisiana that he was sick and 'unable to come north as expected'. Emily then traveled to Vidalia.

252. William M. Schrock Capt. Born in 1837 in per Minnie, Younkin Hall. Was a stepson. His mother was Caroline (or “Catherine”) Myers.

His entry in the 1906 book History of Bedford and Somerset Counties, Pennsylvania: “William M Schrock, youngest child and son, of Aaron (3) and Catherine (Meyers) Schrock, was born in Turkeyfoot township, Somerset county, Pennsylvania, August 19, 1837. He was educated in the public schools of his native township, and in addition had the benefit of six months' attendance at a collegiate institute in Somerset Pennsylvania. At the early age of sixteen years he commenced to teach in the public schools, and assisted his father on the farm and in the blacksmith shop until he was eighteen years of age. He then obtained a position in a country store, and a year later, early in 1859, went with four companions to the west. They started with a three-yoke ox team and a supply of provisions to least them six months. They crossed the plains, then known as the Great American desert, in search of fold at Pike's Peak. In this search they were as unsuccessful as so many thousands of others, and Mr. Schrock returned to Somerset later in the same year, a bankrupt in money and worldly good, but rich in experience and knowledge of the then wild west. The exposure, suffering and misery of hundreds of people were heart-rending in the extreme. He again took up the work of a clerk in a store. Later, in 1870, with eldest brother, Edward, he established the Somerset Standard, a paper which enjoyed a considerable amount of popularity and influence. Later it was merged with another newspaper. In 1804, in connection with his son-in-law, John A. Lambert, he again established and began the publication of the Somerset Standard, and a few years later withdrew from this, leaving his son-in-law to continue the publication. Mr. Schrock has served his country and town in various capacities. He was for six years clerk for the county commissioners, and has always taken an active interest in all movements that tended to the welfare of the community. He is a civil engineer and for almost twenty-five years has been the engineer and superintendent for the construction of bridges in the county.

Mr. Schrock's military career is one of which any man may well be proud. In 1863, when the president issued his call for volunteers for the period of six months, Mr. Schrock recruited a company of eighty men, rank and file, at New Centreville, in seven days, and tendered their services to the government. On June 24th a United States mustering officer appeared at New Centreville, the rendezvous, and duly mustered this company into the United States service. This was the only company mustered in by a regular United States muster officer in Somerset county during he course of the Civil war. The company remained at New Centreville, without arms or uniforms, until July 6th, when it was ordered to Berlin, arms having been secured at the county seat... Mr. Schrock is a member of the R.P. Cummins Post No. 210, Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania, of which he has been adjutant for ten years, and has been commander. He is a member of the Christian or Disciple church and deservedly esteemed and respected by his fellow citizen."

apparently they only had one child from obituaries Source for this family: Verda Baird of Fairfield, Jefferson Co., Iowa (researcher) Sanford's death certificate states his occupation as "plasterer"

On 17 Jan 1865 Hester Anne married Sanford M. Boling Senator, in Fairfield, Jefferson, Iowa. Born on 30 Dec 1834 in Muskingum, OHIO. Sanford M. died in Fairfield, Jefferson, Iowa on 18 Oct 1893; he was 58.

From Iowa Official Register: Born in Muskingum County, Ohio, December 31, 1834, and is the son of William and Julia (Grimsley) Boling both of whom were natives of Virginia. He received his education in the old subscription schools common at that early day and at the age of ten years began working at the plasterers trade with his father. In August of 1862, he enlisted in Company F. of the One Hundred and Twenty-second Ohio Volunteers. He was immediately commissioned Second Lieutenant. Mr. Boling was discharged on December 30, 1861 in Columbus, Ohio were he remained until January. 1865, when he removed to Fairfield. During the first five years after his arrival he was in the employ of the American Express Company, but his health so failed him that he was compelled to change his occupation and for a time he worked at the plasterer's trade. This was followed by one year spent as a contractor and in January, 1874, he entered upon the duties of the office of Auditor of Jefferson County, in which capacity he served the people acceptably for six years, his worth and ability having been tested and found to be in merit even above what his friends had anticipated. In 1879, he was honored with an election to the State Senate and served in that body during the sessions of 1880 and 1882. In the first Assembly, he was Chairman of the Committee on Penitentiaries, which originated a bill creating the office of warden in the penitentiary at Anamosa. He was the active spirit in securing an amendment to equalize the good time earned by convicts. Up to this time counties could vote on public improvements only at general elections, and as a result when one party championed any public enterprise, the other felt bound to oppose. It thus became difficult for a county even to erect a courthouse, and it was through the instrumentality of Mr. Boling that an amendment was passed permitting such questions to be voted upon either at general or special elections. During the session of 1882, he was Chairman of the Committee on Public Buildings and secured the passage of a bill appropriating a half million to complete the State Capitol. Former appropriations had been so small that they were largely consumed in paying the salaries of those selected to look after their expenditure and in the passage of this bill Mr. Boling performed an important work. Socially, he belonged to the Masonic and Odd-Fellows fraternities and to the Grand Army Post of Fairfield, of which he is a charter member. Mr. Boling chose as a life companion Miss Hester A. Younkin, their marriage being celebrated on the 17th of January, 1865.

Per letter of Feb. 27, 1936, from Charles Arthur Younkin to John E. Younkin, of Connellsville, PA, (courtesy of Elaine Younkin Clark): “As your father was Eli Younkin and he had a brother Messmore whose son Carl Younkin did live at Belle Vernon Pa. and a daughter Mrs. Soisson at South C’ville, Pa. You are right, your father’s brother John was killed on the railroad he being a RR engineer. His death was many years ago. His son John W. Younkin still lives at Smithfield Pa. and your uncle Andrew Younkin was married to the widow of my own uncle Dempsey Younkin and a daughter Edna lives in Chicago, Ill.... Now your grandfather Jacob Younkin better known as (Devil) Jake Younkin am told that he derived this name in this way. That he lived near the Jersey Church in Somerset Co. and was in the habit of getting drunk quite frequently, and on these sprees would cut some great capers. On one occasion am told he climbed on top of barn roof and had a great time. Also that there were several Jacob Younkin of his day and each had a distinguishing nickname. Your grandfather was married to Sarah Tannehill and the father of your grandfather, or in other words your great-grandfather was John Younkin or better known as Yankee John Younkin. His wife was Nancy Hartzell. Your grandfather had a brother John H. Younkin who was the father of Mrs. John Forsythe on the Vanderbilt Road. Mrs. Forsythe has a daughter Mrs. Ronald Earle who lives with her.

Now here is where the missing link comes in as yet we have been unable to make any connection as to where the above Yankee John comes in although he lived and died in Somerset Co.... It is claimed by Mrs. Forsythe and Mrs. Earle that the father of Yankee John Younkin as John also, which is reasonable to believe. In time we hope [to] state definitely."

Nancy's obituary in the Meyersdale Republican, February 6, 1941: "Mrs. Nancy (Younkin) Forsythe, widow of John C. Forsythe, died at her home on the Vanderbilt Road, Connellsville, in her ninetieth year, and was buried in Oak Hill Cemetery in Connellsville. Early in life, William lived and worked in Hardy County, WV, and his first wife was Caroline Wiltrout. He relocated in about 1876 from West Virginia to Connellsville. After marrying in about 1878, he and our Sadie lived on Gibson Avenue in South Connellsville. Sadie and William had 11 children, of whom nine survived to adulthood -- Joseph C.

Strawderman, John C. Strawderman, Mary Strawderman, Vergie Strawderman, Etta Younkin, Martha Strawderman, Sallie Strawderman, Jesse Strawderman and Myrtle Morgan. Three of the daughters wed Clarence Glover, Frank Snooks and Steve Reed. William was a member of the South Connellsville Evangelical Church, American Order of Mechanics and the Knights of the Mystic Chain. In the early 1900s, he secured employment as a carpenter with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. But heartache shook this family to the core in early July 1906 when William was killed in a railroad accident along the rail lines. Reported the Connellsville Courier, he "was run down by a B. & O. eastbound freight train ... while on his way to work at Indian Creek.... He had several ribs broken and a punctured lung, the latter injury causing his death. He also had a very bad scalp wound." Adding to the agony, his children Martha, Sallie and Jesse were seriously ill at home with typhoid fever at the time he was dying at Connellsville's Cottage State Hospital. As a widow, Sadie lived in Wooddale, Fayette County, and circa 1927, she was in Youngstown, Mahoning County, OH. By 1942, she had moved into the home of her son John in Indian Head. Sarah died at John's residence on Aug. 27, 1942, age 83. She was placed into eternal rest in Mount Olive Cemetery near Pennsville, following a funeral in the United Brethren Church, with Rev. William Wallace of the Melcroft Gospel Tabernacle leading the service. The Daily Courier reported that she was survived by 28 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. At the time of death, her adult children Jesse, Joseph, Mrs. Glover and Mrs. Snooks lived in Youngstown, while daughter Mrs. Reed dwelled in Akron. [From her Minerd.com biography.]

Grandson Jesse S. Strawderman ran afoul of the law as a young man. At the age of 19, he was "convicted of breaking into a box car while hitch-hiking through Virginia enroute to Connellsville, his home," reported the Daily Courier. While imprisoned in the Virginia Penitentiary in Richmond, after three months, he escaped from a road gang in July 1919, and returned home to Connellsville, living with his secret. He found a job as a railroad brakeman, worked odd jobs as a painter, married Rose Raupauch and had three children -- Catherine Strawderman, Jessie May Srawderman and Billie Strawderman. He told his story to his mother after a decade, and both "felt convinced the law had forgotten," said the Courier. But officials of the penitentiary remembered and traced the man to his new home here. he was arrested and placed in the county jail."

At the age of 22, on July 18, 1914, she married a cousin, 25-year-old laborer William "Harrison" Younkin (1889-1950), a native of Broadford, near Connellsville. Methodist Minister in Harrisburg, Pa.

From his Minerd.com biography: Rev. Marcellus Deaves Lichliter (1849-1917) was born on April 10, 1849 near New Lexington, Somerset County. He later recalled that "I glory in my kinship. My father, on one side, was a German, my father upon the other was an Englishman. My mother, on the one side, was a Yankee, and on the other side an Irish woman." In describing his growing-up years, he once said that "When I was a boy I thought the more beef I ate and the more cabbage and potatoes I crammed down in my little stomach the sooner I would be a man."

He married Mary Florence McIlyar, daughter of Rev. James Jackson and Alice (Morris) McIlyar of Butler, Butler County, PA. The wedding took place in Butler on June 22, 1876, when Marcellus was age 27.

They had two children -- McIlyar Hamilton Lichliter and Alice Morris Crooks.

Marcellus' relatives knew him as a "famous minister," but he also was an educator, author and lecturer, "descended from good ancestral stock -- German, English and Scotch-Irish -- grafted into New England Puritan stock," said his entry in the 1913 book, Encyclopedia of Pennsylvania Biography, Illustrated, Volume III, authored by John W. Jordan. He obtained secondary education at Mount Union College in Ohio and then taught school for several years. Yearning to pursue a career in Christian ministry as had his father, Marcellus began his preaching career in 1872 as part of the Pittsburgh Annual Conference, and remained in this role for 28 years. During that time, he was "statistician" for a decade until poor health forced him to step down.

He was an eyewitness to the aftermath of two tragic, violent events which shaped Pittsburgh's labor history -- the 1877 railroad strike which causes millions in damages, and the 1889 Homestead steelworker strike resulting in the deaths of both strikers and Pinkerton detectives.

Later, Governor William S. Stone appointed him as chief clerk of the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, and he resided in Harrisburg, Dauphin County, PA. He was a member of the Independent Order of Good Templars, the Odd Fellows and the Masons. Circa 1912, he was chaplain of the National Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. At least twice he gave testimony to the House Committee on Immigration and Naturalization, based on his strong dislike of unskilled immigrant laborers who were taking jobs away from Americans. At one hearing, he claimed the United States could not properly assimilate the vast waves of newcomers and urged Congress to restrict immigration. In on instance he went so far as to say the "moral fiber of the nation has been weakened and its very life-blood vitiated by the influx of this tide of oriental scum." His other work as a lecturer was "in great demand," said the Encyclopedia, "and he has been called into many States to address public meetings and to present flags and Bibles. Since his connection with the organization he has presented to the public schools fifty Bibles and more than four hundred flags."

He also was a prolific author and was a correspondent for The American journal for 30 years. Among his printed works were "historical monographs" about early Americana covering mound builders, General Henry Bouquet, Fort Necessity, Captain Sam Brady and many more. He gave several talks over the years at the Historical Society of Western Pennsylvania, one on Feb. 13, 1890 on "General John Gibson." On June 27, 1916, residing in the Bellevue section of Pittsburgh, he gave another speech at the Historical Society entitled "Woman and Her Relation to American History."

Marcellus died in Harrisburg in 1917.

683. Barbara Ellen “Ella” Hare. Born 1855, died 1926. Adopted daughter.

Connellsville Weekly Courier – Sept. 6, 1903 – “Rev. Bumgartner of Somerset County Explains Ella Hare Case”

The following communication is from Rev. Bumgartner of Somerset county in reference to some published reports that have been printed in Fayette and Somerset counties. Barbara Ellen Hare of Somerset county, Pa., inherited from Mr. and Mrs. Hare property consisting of real estate and household effects. I, being the only relative in reach, was requested by Mr. and Mrs. Hare, prior to their death, and by Miss Hare, to see that her effects would not be misused or squandered. Soon after the death of Mrs. Hare, Mr. Hare dying a few years before, Barbara Ellen gave me power of attorney to transact her business, which I did until Dr. Kuhlman, a distant relative of Mrs. Hare, secured from Miss Hare a similar authority, revoking mine. Believing that Miss Hare was not competent of transacting her own business I asked the court of Somerset, Pa., to take steps to secure her property unto herself. Seeing that she was in want for the necessities of life, especially during the winter of 1901 and 1902, I reported her condition to the court, when Judge Kooser authorized me to give her such necessary relief as might be necessary until the matter as to her mental ability would be decided. Her case was taken up under the old law of "Insanity in business," to which Dr. Kuhlman filed objections. The case was heard and the objections sustained by Judge O'Conner. All other matter published by the press in this case are either imaginations or maliciousness. I think the court should have placed the costs of this case to the objectors of the bill, but am glad it was not placed to poor Barbara. The matter is not yet ended, and the new law of "Weakness of Mind."

Meyersdale Republican – Aug. 20, 1903:

Barbara Ellen Hare of Lower Turkeyfoot township is not insane, according to the opinion of Judge F.J. O'Connor of Cambria county, which was forwarded to Prothonotary Berkey on Saturday afternoon, and as a result of the court's opinion S.M. Baumgardner of Elk Lick township, a relative of Barbara, who was desirous of having the court declare her a lunatic, will be compelled to pay costs in the neighborhood of seventy-five dollars. Early in 1901 Mr. Baumgardner presented a petition to the court asking that a commissioner be appointed to inquire into the lunacy of Barbara Ellen Hare. The court appointed John R. Scott, and a hearing was held in his office on the 29th day of March of the same year, before six persons selected by the commissioner to act as jurors. It developed at the hearing that the woman owned eight acres of land in Lower Turkeyfoot township, on which they were erected a dwelling house, stable, and other outbuildings, valued at about fifteen hundred dollars. The nearest of her kin was the petitioner, S.M. Baumgardner. The commissioner's report sets forth that Barbara Ellen Hare was aged 48 years, and that for the last 20 years she was a lunatic, incapable of transacting her own business, suggesting that a committee be appointed to transact her business for her. Exceptions were filed to the report of the commissioner, and a short time ago arguments upon these exceptions were made before Judge O'Connor, who sustained the exceptions, and placed all the costs upon the petitioner, S.M. Baumgardner. Touching the question of costs the Court says it may be true that the action of the petitioner in starting the proceedings, may have been prompted by the highest motives, and that selfishness had no part therein, but to impose the costs upon Barbara Ellen Hare, who has little enough with which to keep the wolf from the door, and who has been guilty of nothing, would be an indefensible act." --Somerset Standard Wakefield is a town of about 600 inhabitants, located a few miles from Clay Centre, the county seat of Clay county. They surrounding community is largely made up of Somerset county people, who were among the original settlers. Moses Younkin, who was murdered a few years since at Seattle, was the first white settler in this county, he having emigrated thither in the early fifties, and whose only neighbors were the half-civilized Indians of the plains. He was followed by other Somerset countians, among whom were the following: William, a brother of Moses Younkin; D.H. Meyers and his three brothers, John, H.H., and Uriah; John P. King, Stephen D. Hartzell and others. In later years Henry Younkin, then an old citizen of Addison township, bought a fine farm here and moved his family upon it, and like all Somerset county people here, prospered. He died a few years ago and his venerable wife, now eighty-eight years of age and in the enjoyment of good health, resides with her son –in-law – D.H. Meyers – at Clay Centre."

BIOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM MELVILLE YOUNKIN (1856–1949)

Current revision, November 6, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

LAVANSVILLE, SOMERSET COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Jan 03, 1856 Born at Lavansville, Somerset County, PA. First child of Mary Catherine (Jones), 20, and Archibald Campbell Younkin, 24. Parents had moved to Lavansville immediately after marriage in Hagerstown, Washington County, Maryland on March 1, 1855. According to later writing by Mary, Archibald took over a dry goods business there.

IOWA CITY, JOHNSON COUNTY, IOWA

1857 Parents decided to move west. The railroad had just been extended to Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa, and they settled there. Family resided continuously in Iowa City until 1887. First known information about the family there was in 1865 when Archibald was elected Johnson County Treasurer. He held this office until until 1870. In the 1870 US Census he was listed as a 'Dealer in Lumber'. In 1874 he was admitted to the Iowa Bar and apparently thereafter earned his living as an attorney first in Iowa City from 1874 to 1887, and then in San Diego from 1887 until his death in 1898.

1862 _ Abt 1873 It is assumed William (WMY) attended the public schools and graduated from high school about 1873.

Aug 27,1870 US Census. Fourteen year old William was 'attending school' while living with his parents and four siblings in Iowa City. Apparently they lived on the 700 block of East College Street

Abt 1873 – 1877 Attended University of Iowa in Iowa City. Graduated from Law Department on Tuesday, 19 June 1877 with degree of LL. B. Atmitted to the Iowa Bar, June 20, 1877. [Souce: University of Iowa, Library Special Collections Department in file bax 24/02 (commencement folders 1857-1891).

This indicates WMY went into partnership with his father, Archibald, soon after graduation. However, it is family knowledge that sometime before they moved to San Diego in 1887, he switched from law to banking.

Jun 26, 1880 US Census. WMY, now 24, was still living with his parents and their four younger children. Family residing on Summit Street.

Oct 24, 1881 Deed in the Johnson County Treasurer's Office this date listed WMY as the Notary Public for the Deed.

Jan 10. 1883 In the Iowa City Daily Republican this date under the heading 'Professional Cards', one of the three ads read:
A. C. Younkin
Attorney at Law
Iowa City, Iowa
First door south of the Iowa City Bank in Opera House Block

There is no separate listing for WMY as an attorney, so his transition from law to banking must have occurred before this date..

Jan 14, 1885 William married Susan Gamble LeFevre (b. Jan 26, 1858, PA.) in Iowa City, with Rev. Folsom officiating. Susan was the sixth child of seven born to Christiana (Foster) and Joseph Henry LeFevre. From Susan's older sister Elizabeth's obit in a Lancaster, PA (she died there in 1930) newspaper, their father was a well-known physician in Strasburg, PA, a few miles from Lancaster. He died in 1875 when Susan was 17. His widow and adult children immigrated to Iowa City around 1880.

1885 State of Iowa Census. The census for Johnson County, Ward 5, Iowa City (same Ward for William's parents and his four younger siblings) lists:
YOUNKIN, Wm. M age 29, married birth-- PA occupation - Bookeeper (Bank)
YOUNKIN, Susan G. age 27, married PA
Living next door to the couple was Susan's widowed mother and three of Susan's five living siblings, James (Head of Household - Farmer), Sameul, and Lizzie. Brother John L. was also found living in Iowa City in 1893 when his name headed a grocery business Apparently sometime after the death of her father in 1875, Susan's family moved en mass to Iowa City.

Nov 20, 1885 Son, William LeFevre (WLY), born in Iowa City.

1887 WMY, 31, and family moved to San Diego, San Diego County, California, with his parents, Archibald and Mary Younkin, and two of WMY's adult siblings, Lulu (Lou) and Edgar.

SAN DIEGO, SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

1887 The San Diego City and County Directory, 1887 – 1888, (apparently published in first half of 1887), lists:
Younkin, William M., bookkeeper, Consolidated National Bank, res 1060 Eleventh
This same residence is listed for WMY's father, Archibald and brother, Edgar. Wives and children were not listed at that time.

Sep 23, 1887 Son, Parke Russell, born in San Diego.
Jan 26. 1891 Parke Russell , 3 years and 4 months, died of scarlet fever. Rev. Dr. Noble officiated at a private funeral at the family's State Street residence

Address: 1256 State Streeet, San Diego in 1891.

1892-1913 family resided San Diego

Early years in San Diego The Younkins bought some orange groves and tried raising oranges as a business. But after three successive years when they lost their crop they gave up and WMY went back to banking full time and Archibald went back to practicing law full time.

1889 The SD C and C Directory, 1889–90, still listed WMY at the Consolidated National Bank but he and Susan now had their own residence at 1256 State Street, apart from that of other familiy members.

BIOGRAPHY OF LULU YOUNKIN (1859-1898)
(also called Lu, Lou, and Lou J.)

Revised November 28, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

I. IOWA CITY, JOHNSON CO., IOWA

March 04, 1859. Born at Iowa City. Third child of seven of Archibald Campbell and Mary Catherine (Jones) Younkin. The parents moved from Lavansville, Somerset, PA, to Iowa City in 1857 and resided there until 1887. Lulu and her siblings grew up in Iowa City.

1859-1866. The family resided in Iowa City. Nothing is known at this time about their activities during this period.

1866 - Aft 1870. Family built home at 701 E. College, Iowa City, and lived there. They sold it in June 1869 but continued to live on College for some time. Information is not available on when they did move to another hous.
Abt 1865 - Abt 1876. It is assumed Lulu attended public schools in Iowa City through high school.

Abt 1876 – 1880 - Attended the University of Iowa at Iowa City and graduated in 1880 with degree of Bachelor of Philosophy. Reference, Leading Events in Johnson County History, Charles Ray Aurner, Western Historical Press, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 1912.

1880 US Census — Lulu lived with family on Summit Street in Iowa City.

Abt 1882 - 1887. Taught school in Iowa City Public Schools for five years. Charles Auner (ibid) while discussing High School personnel at the time, stated, "Miss Lou Younkin, teacher of literature, history, and German in the English Department; she has devoted much time to the study of German; she is a very fine English and German scholar, and a good teacher".

Jun 14, 1883 Minutes of the Board of Trustees of the Iowa City Schools
The following teachers were elected for the ensuing year. High School.
Miss Lou Younkin at a salary of $35 per month.

Unknown - 1887 Family apparently resided at 520 South Johnson Street, Iowa City.

II. SAN DIEGO, SAN DIEGO CO., CALIFORNIA

1887 Lulu moved to San Diego same year as parents and older brother, William, and his family, and apparently brother Edgar. Lulu was appointed to the position of (The) Librarian of the San Diego Public Library .

1887 Technically, the San Diego Public Library opened in 1882. But until 1887 it was just a room with a collection of uncataloged books and the single 'Librarian' was effectively a clerk whose primary function was to check the books on hand in and out. On September 6, 1887 the Board of Trustees discharged the previous Librarian and hired Miss Lulu Younkin as the first formal Librarian "to take charge of the library and to index (catalog) the books" at a salary of $70 per month.

1887 - 1889 To "take charge" meant to create a formal and enlarged library. One of Lulu's first accomplishments was to classify the 7800 books of the library according to the Dewey Decimal System. By April 1889 she completed this task and authored, Catalog (of Books) of the San Diego Free Public Library, published by F, M. Dalmazzo, San Diego

1887-1895 Entries given in the San Diego City and County Directory for Lulu were:
1887 No listing for Lulu, although her father and two brothers were given. Lulu was not hired until September. They apparently came to San Diego earlier in the year, while she did not make the publication deadline.

1889 Younkin. Miss Lulu, librarian at Public Library, res 1037 Fir near First.
1892 Younkin, Miss Lu, librarian of Public Library, res 1630 Seventh. Same address as father (Wives and children were not listed).
1893 Younkin, Miss Lou, librarian Public Library, res 1442 Seventh (Same as father).
1895 Younkin, Miss Lu, res Eighth and Cedar.

Her picture hangs on the wall of the main library at 8th and E streets to this day.

Fall 1895 - Took a six weeks vacation to visit her sister Helen 'Nellie" in Denver While on vacation she met an school friend from Iowa City who had attended medical school at the University of Iowa, Horace G. (Gilcrest?) Anderson. They decided to marry immediately, a great surprise to family and friends.

III. PITKIN, GUNDERSON CO., COLORADO

November 06, 1895 - Married Anderson at Denver, Colorado. Resigned San Diego librarian position. Moved to Pitkin, Colorado (a mining town of about 2000 population, 100 miles south west of Denver and on the RR) where Anderson had a medical practice.

October 27, 1897 - Daughter, Belle Gilcrest Anderson, born at San Diego. She was named after a friend and classmate of Lulu's (from the (Class of 1880) at the University of Iowa, Belle M. Gilcrest (Des Moines).

February l898 - Lulu suffered what would probably be called today a nervous breakdown. She was sent to the state hospital at Highland, California, now called Patton State Hospital at Patton, San Bernadino Co.. California.

April 25, 1898 - Died at Patton State Hospital at age 39.

On 6 Nov 1895 when Lulu J. was 36, she married Horace G. Anderson Dr., in Denver, Colorado.

They had one child:

798. Edgar Younkin. Born on 18 Jul 1861 in Iowa City, Johnson, IA. Edgar died in San Diego, San Diego, California on 26 Sep 1927; he was 66. Buried in Mt Hope Cem., San Diego, California.

Biography of Edgar Younkin (1861 - 1927)

November 16, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

18 Jul 1861 Born at Iowa City, Johnson Co., Iowa. Fourth child of seven born to Archibald Campbell (A. C.) and Mary Catherine (Jones) Younkin. Archibald was a businessman, later lawyer, and sometimes politician.

1857 Parents and their first child William moved from PA to Iowa City. With later children resided there continuously until 1887.

Childhood and Youth With the exception of the US Census, no information is available on Edgar during this period.

27 Aug 1870 US Census for Archibald's family residing in the 4th Ward of Iowa City includes, "Eddie" age 8.

Jul 26, 1880 US Census record for Archibald's family residing in Iowa City includes, "Eddie" age 18.

1885 Iowa State Census.

1887 Parents, brother William Melville with wife and infant son William LeFevre, sister Lulu. and Edgar (26) depart Iowa City for San Diego, California.

1887 Directory of San Diego City and County for 1887-8 includes;
"Younkin, Edward, stenographer, with Klauber and Levi, res 1060 Eleventh". Also listed were, Younkin, A. C., and Younkin, William M., (children were not listed nor were wives unless they were head of their household). All three of these Younkins listed had the same address, apparently they and their families lived together when they first moved to San Diego. Althougth Lulu had started to work at the San Diego Public Library in September 1887, she must have not arrived by the closing date for publication earlier in the year. These early directories were often titled to cover two years. They actually must have reflect residents only at the time of canvassing which is believed to be early in the first year. They generally did not include actual publication date.

1889 Directory of San Diego and Vicinity for 1889 - 90, includes:
"Younkin, Ed., stenographer with Klauber & Levi, res 1037 Fir."
All four Younkins were now listed. Only Edgar and Lulu now had the same address.

1889 Sister Lulu started to work as the Librarian of the San Diego Public Library (SDPL) in September 1887. As the library grew several other individuals where hired full time or part time as assistants. Edgar was one of these part-timers. His employment there can be traced through pay records approved in the Minutes of the monthly meetings of the Library Board.

Mar 14, 1890 No further listings for E. Younkin through this date
Given Edgar's availability for working at the library, his employment as a stenographer must have been irregular.

1892 Directory of San Diego City and County 1892-93 includes:
Younkin, Edgar, stenographer with W. E. Howard, res 1632 Seventh.
Of the three other adult Younkins, A. C. and Lulu live next door at 1630 while William M. (and family) have a different address

1893 DSDCC for 1893-4
Edgar is missing from this issue. These San Diego Directories seem consistent in their listing of individuals, so perhaps he was visiting elsewhere at the time of publication.

1895 DSDCC
Younkin, Edgar, stenographer, res Eighth and Cedar Still living with Lulu. A, C.

1897 DSDCC
Younkin, Edgar, stenographer, res 640 22th
Edgar is only Younkin living at this address. Lulu left San Diego in November 1895. Edgar's father, Archibald, is listed as he has been for every year of issue since his arrival in San Diego in 1887.

1899 DSDCC for 1899-1900
Edgar's father died in November 1898. Therefore it would be expected that he would be replaced in this issue of the directory by his wife, Mary C. Younkin. However, neither she nor Edgar were listed.

1900 US Census. This Census shows Arthur, 32, and Loretta, 29 living in Lucas Township, Johnson County, Iowa. Living with them are his mother, Mary C. (65) and his brother, Edgar (38). The latter two had apparently come back to Iowa City for an extended visit in early 1899 after the death of her husband Archibald in San Diego, CA in late 1898.

1904 Iowa City Directory. For this year the directory lists:
A. J. and Loretta YOUNKIN -- grocer -- res. 404 S. Dubuque
Mrs. Mary YOUNKIN (widow A. C.) -- res. 909 E. Burlington
Edgar YOUNKIN -- bookeeper -- res. 909 E. Burlington
City Directories for Iowa City are available for the years., 1899-1900, 1901-1902, 1904, and 1907. It may be assumed they had not reached Iowa City by the 1899 printing date, they had returnid to San Diego by 1907 (see below). leaving only the 1901 printing date unaccounted for. It is uncertain whether they were abscent from Iowa City at the latter date or whether they were simply missed by the "census taker". Omissions were not uncommon.

1899 - 1906 The 1897 San Diego City and County Directory showed Mary's husband, Archibald, and son, Edgar, (wives were not listed at that time unless head of household) living at 640 22nd Street. A directory for 1898 is not available. Archibald died in San Diego in November 1898. Both Mary and Edgar are missing from the 1899 Directory (published in 1899 with cut-off date for publication apparently early 1899). They continued to be omitted from the 1901, 03, 04, and 05 San Diego Directories (No 1900 available). But in 1906 while Mary is still omitted, Edgar is listed as a homeowner (?) at 1931 Essex Avenue, San Diego. In 1907 both Edgar and Mary are listed as residing at the Essex address.

In lieu of any direct evidence to the contrary, Edgar and Mary are assumed to have lived away from San Diego for approximately seven years. Most probably they were in Iowa City with Arthur and Loie during this time, but trips from there to visit other relatives are not precluded.

1906 DSDCC

BIOGRAPHY OF ARTHUR JONES YOUNKIN (1868-ABT 1956)

Current revision - November 19, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

Jan 6, 1868 Arthur Jones Younkin was born at Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa, the seventh and final child of Archibald Campbell and Mary Catherine (Jones) Younkin. Five grew to adulthood, in birth order, William Melville, Lulu, Edgar, Helen (Nellie), and Arthur.

1857-1887 Archibald, Mary, and toddler William moved from Pennsylvania to Iowa City in 1857, and there the rest of their children including Arthur were born and grew up. Archibald had started a business career in Pennsylvania in 1855, and continued it in Iowa City. Then he was elected Johnson County Treasurer from 1865 to 1870, and in 1874 he was admitted to the Iowa Bar. He then practiced Law there until Mary and he and the three oldest of their grown children moved to San Diego in 1887.
Archibald's family was apparently reasonably comfortable in Iowa City. Local historian Irving Weber has identified the three top residential streets of the era, and the family lived on two of them, College Street around 1870 and Summit Street around 1880.

We have no record of Arthur during this period except his presence in the family was recorded in three censuses.

27 Aug 1870 US Census for Archibald's family residing in the 4th Ward of Iowa City includes, "Arthur" age 2.

Jul 26, 1880 US Census record for Archibald's family residing in Iowa City includes, "Arthur" age 12.

1885 Iowa State Census. Arthur, age 17, was residing with his family in Iowa City. If Arthur graduated from High School when he was 17, this was the year.

Arthur was 19 at the time of the 1887 San Diego move. Only he and his 22 year old sister Nellie stayed behind. This seems surprising since Arthur and Nell were working as clerks while two of the three older children had professional positions in Iowa City. Nell moved to Denver in 1991. Arthur alone of the family lived out his life in Iowa City and on his farm close by.

A LeFevre family came to Iowa City from Strasburg (a few miles outside of Lancaster), Pennsylvania. There it was headed by Dr. Joseph LeFevre, a well known physician. In 1875 Joseph died, survived by his wife, Christiana, and six adult children ranging in age from 31 to 17. Sometime around 1880 Christiana and at least five of her children, some with wives, migrated to Iowa City.

Jan 14, 1885 Arthur's edest brother, William Melville, married Susan G. LeFevre (youngest member of her family) in Iowa City.

Later in the year of their marriage the Iowa census showed William and Susan living next door to the LeFevres. A close family friendship developed between the Younkins and the LeFevres that was continued for many years. In Iowa City it lasted until at least 1925. In San Diego until at least 1917.

Perhaps a contributing factor for Arthur's decision to stay was this Younkin–LeFevre relationship. In Iowa City, a member of the latter family, John Leaman LeFevre, had set up a business which Arthur joined as a young man. He was able to use this to achieve considerable success on his own.

1885- 1890 No record of Arthur has been found during this period. At least three of his siblings are on record as having attended The University of Iowa in Iowa City. William M. graduated in 1877, Lulu in 1880, and Helen entered in 1880, but was forced to withdraw because of spinal meningitis. If Arthur attended, he would have started about 1885. But we have no idea when before 1890 he started to work
1890 Iowa City Directories were published sporadically in those days. After none in the 1880s, an 1890 Iowa

City Directory included:
Younkin, A. J. clerk res. 706 College
Younkin, Nell " "
LeFevre, John L. merchant res 725 College store at 129 S. Dubuque Steet.

In events described below, Arthur had a career in the grocery business so it is likely with John LeFevre. Nell started as a clerk in a business office about 1885 and worked there until she moved to Denver in 1891.,

In the 1890 listing for Arthur, his employer was not specified. The later is given for the first time in the next City Directory, for 1893. Now it was stated Arthur worked for J. L. LeFevre & Co.

14 Apr 1899 An article in the Iowa Citizen this date:.
"ART YOUNKIN IS PRESIDENT
The retail grocers of the state have formed an organization and are having a meeting at Des Moines this week. There were 100 of the leading men in the state present and they discussed some of the important questions with which the retailer has to wrestle and they are many. This is the first meeting which they have held and the number of members is small as compared to the strength which is expected to develop in the association as its object becomes better understood and the good which it may accomplish becomes apparent. A. J. Younkin of this city was honored with the temporary presidency of the association, a position which he will honor. He is the only representative of this city present."

11 Aug 1899 Arthur (age 31) married Loretta M. "Loie" Thompson, (b. Iowa, Jan 1871) in Iowa City. The Daily Iowa State Press, August 12th, page 8, carried the following article:

"YOUNKIN--THOMPSON
Last evening at six-thirty the Rev. J. S. McCord pronounced the words which united in marriage Arthur J. Younkin and Miss Loie M. Thompson. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents and was a very pretty event. The spacious rooms were handsomely decorated and the bridal couple stood beneath smilax and orange blossoms. Sixty guests were present to witness the marriage of the popular young people and extend best wishes. Numerous presents showed the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Younkin are held by their Iowa City friends. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding supper was given by the bride's parents and the newly wed pair left on the nine o'clock train for a weeks journey in the east.
The groom, Mr. Younkin, is one of Iowa City's rising business men and is rapidly gaining for himself a strong position in the business world of this city. He recently purchased the Grocery business of J. L. LeFevre and has by close application to business gained for himself a large and increasing trade.
The bride, Miss Thompson, has for a number of years been connected with the W. F. Main office and has by her pleasing disposition made for herself many friends in business and social circles who unite with the Press in extending congratulations."

Abt 1900 An undated portrait photo of Arthur and Loie at about the ages of their marriage bears the imprint of a photographer in Spokane, Washington. With the other dates surrounding this time it seems clear that this was taken on a trip and that Arthur's home remained in Iowa City.

1900 US Census. This Census shows Arthur, 32, and Loretta, 29 living in Lucas Township, Johnson County. Living with them are his mother, Mary C. (65) and his brother, Edgar (38).

1899 - 1906 A letter written in May 1899 by William LeFevre Younkin, age 13, to his grandmother Mary indicates she left San Diego in early 1899 to visit relatives back east. This followed the death of Mary's husband Archibald in November 1898.
The names of Mary and son Edgar who had been living with his parents are missing from the San Diego City and County Directories from 1899 to 1906. With the additional information given below it is assumed this reflects their absence from San Diego during these years. (see Biography of Archibald Younkin for more detail on this).

The above two entries for 1900 and 1904 are the only ones found so far which specifically locate Mary and Edgar during the period from 1899 to 1906. In the absence of other information it is assumed Mary and Edgar spent most this time in Iowa City. (The only other year during this period for which an Iowa City directory was issued was 1901. Their names are missing from that directory. However, inclusion in the Iowa City directory was somewhat erratic, so omission from that directory should not be considered proof of their absence.)

Certainly trips to visit other relatives or friends during this period may have occurred. Mary had several children living around Beatrice, Nebraska at this time. Beatrice is amost on a direct line between San Diego and Iowa City, so it is difficult to believe she did not visit there. Yet her confirmed presence in Iowa City at such separated times as 1900 and 1904 as well as the fact that she must have had many friends there from her past 30 year residence argues that it must have served as her base during this seven year period.

1909 and 1911 Smith's Directory of Iowa City for these two years lists Arthur J. Younkin as a grocer with wife Loretta and place of business at 818 E Market and residence at 818 1/2 E Market. It is not clear whether this is the same grocery store purchased from J. L. LeFevre & Co.

1912 Iowa City Directory

1913 and1914 same as 1912, but with no employer listed.

Abt 1913 An Iowa City historian, Irving Weber, who was born in 1900, recalls (1995) as a boy he was in a group that picked strawberries on the farm of Arthur Younkin. The farm was located just southeast of Iowa City (at the time) in what is now an industrial park. Arthur is known to have been in the grocery business from about 1890 through at least 1911 (above), and to have had a farm by 1913 through at least 1934 (below). There is no information at this time as to whether these two occupations overlapped.

1915 thru 1928 No entry given for Arthur in ciry directories.. It is assumed Arthur and Lorreta moved to their farm on East Kirkwood, which was outside the city limits then.

Jun 1925 Photographs with this date show that Arthur's nephew William LeFevre Younkin and family visited Arthur and Loie on their farm 'at' Iowa City. Also present in some photos is an elderly woman identified as WLY's Aunt Sadie. This must be Sarah the widow of John L. LeFevre who was so helpful in Arthur's grocery career.

May 1926 The oldest telephone directory in the Iowa Historical Society in Iowa City bears this date. It gives the address of A. J. Younkin as East Kirkwood Avenue. This avenue extends to southeast Iowa City. This seems most likely to be Arthur's farm. This address for Arthur is carried through the August 1932 directory as far as the telephone directories have been checked). It is noted that these directories give no mention of a grocery store address.

Arthur and Loretta had no known children and from general knowledge of the couple (RLY) in the 1930s it seems clear they could not have had any that survived beyond s childhood. RLY

Summer 1934 Another visit by Wm. L. Younkin and family to Art and Loie's farm at Iowa City is confirmed by photographs of members of both families taken together. Loie is in two photographs with her car, a Chevy coupe of the early 30s. The license plate reads 'Iowa 1934' and '52 - 1110'.

1938 The program of the Historical Pageant of Iowa City this year listed Mrs. A. J. Younkin as a participant.

Jan 12, 1949 San Diego Union obit of William Melville Younkin named among his survivors a brother, Arthur J. Younkin of Iowa City. Arthur was 80.

10 Nov 1955 San Diego Union obit of Arthur's sister, Helen "Nellie" Younkin, said she was survived by one brother. Assuming this obit was correct, since brother Edgar died in 1927 and brother William in 1949 the surviving brother could only have been Arthur.

According to Arthur's great-niece Margaret Pettit Younkin Arthur and Loie continued to live on a farm near Iowa City (not necessarily the same one all this time) until about a year before their deaths. They then moved to a nursing home(s) and died there, This should be no earlier than 1956-57.

Note: We are indebted to Robert J. Libby of Iowa City for research which gave most of the information about Arthur Jones Younkin and his life.

Nell however, has written that when she went to work in 1885 there was only one business in Iowa City which hired women - The Holstein Friesan Association of American. She started as a clerk doing office work, was later promoted to stenographer, and worked there until she moved to Denver.

Obituary of their granddaughter Virginia Lee (Simms) Toney provided by Memorial Oaks Funeral Home and Cemetery, Houston, TX – August 2016 - Virginia Lee Simms Toney, better known as "Ginny" was born on Wheeling Island, Wheeling, WV November 30, 1927 to Hubert Carlin Simms and Nancy Leanore Carney Simms. The family was transferred often and they lived in many towns in WV, Fairmont, Bluefield, Beckley, Huntington, Charleston. Ginny went to West Virginia University in Morgantown where she met the love of her life, James William Warren Toney, known as "Bill". Their favorite story was when Ginny got Bill on a five dollar bet. A sorority sister bet her $5.00 she couldn't get a date with him. They lived in Parkersburg, WV then moved to the Chicago area followed by Richmond, VA, High Point and Charlotte, NC and later spent many years in Ridgewood, Northwest Bergen County, NJ. Ginny went into Real Estate and was always proud of being a member of the Million Dollar Sales, as she would say, "when houses sold for $20,000 each". In 1981 Bill was transferred to Houston, TX and Ginny gave up Real Estate and followed her interest and hobby of genealogy. Ginny served on the Ad Hoc committee to start the Clayton Library Friends which then led to serving as President and other jobs with the CLF. She was a member of Lady Washington DAR, Col John Alston Chapter of the Colonial Dames of the 17th Century, James Asbury Tait Chapter of Daughters of the War of 1812 and many historical groups. Ginny was known for her jokes. Although she was mischievous as a young person and pulling pranks, she was most proud of the fact that she was also on the honor roll in school and a member of the National Honor Society. Ginny is preceded in death by her two children, James Carlin and Jane Ellen, and her beloved husband Bill, who passed in 1994. She is survived by her four children, Charles P. "Chuck" Toney, of Paris, TX, John S. Toney of Stephenville, VA, Sandra Zauner of Lubbock, TX, and Nancy Tanchek of Ewing, NJ., six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. A Memorial Service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Clayton Library Friends.

> I do not share the fears of many that the Nazi tyranny can achieve much on this continent, except, perhaps, in the field of economic warfare. Nor do I fear that the British Empire will yield no matter what may happen in the British Isles, But, les us assume that Hitler's dream of world domination comes true, what then? Even so, I know of no disaster which can ever destroy the liberty of the Christian man.

McIlyar passed in Akron on Jan. 17, 1961. Opined an obituary in The Philalethes, a newsletter of the Masonic order, "It is difficult to say whether his vocation was that of a minister, of an editor, of a ritualist, of a teacher, or probably, a happy and vigorous combination of all of them, which translated itself into the vocation of public servant."

BIOGRAPHY OF WILLIAM LEFEVRE YOUNKIN (1885-1946)

Current Revision, November 5, 1995
RLY (Robert LeFevre Younkin)

Nov 20, 1885 Born at Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa. First child of William Melville (29) and Susan (LeFevre) (27) Younkin. Father studied law at the University of Iowa, graduating in 1877. But within a few years he dropped the practice of law and went into the banking business where he spent most of his professional career.

1887 William LeFevre (WLY) moved with his parents and Younkin grandparents (Archibald and Mary) to San Diego, San Diego County, California.

1887-1907 William grew up in San Diego.

Sep 23, 1887 Brother, Parke Russell, born in San Diego.

Oct 24, 1892 Sister, Sarah Gladys 'Sadie', born at San Diego.

1894-1903 Educated, Public Schools, San Diego. It is seen he started to school late. And he dropped out of high school before graduating. From family information, he was apparently plagued by intestinal troubles, which continued intermittently in adult life.

1903 Material on the childhood of one who grew up nearly 100 years ago is difficult to come by. However, a glimpse into the youth of WLY is given by a letter of condolence written by one Frank B. Bennett, Attorney at Law, Bank of America Building, San Diego, following the death of WLY in December 1946. The letter, addressed to his father William Melville Younkin who was still living, contained this exerpt:
"I was one of the neighborhood kids when you lived on 15th Street was back in 1902-03, after which we moved from San Diego. 'Bill' was a little older than I was but he never 'high-hatted' me on that account but treated me as an equal, listened to my opinions, and was always most kind to me, and this I have never forgotten, although it is 43 years since I last saw him. I remember him as a tall, slim chap with brains to spare, used to read alot, and did well in school. I remeber Sadie [WLY's younger sister] was there too, but at my age, 12 and 13, girls didn't count. Bill introduced me to the Public Library when it was in the old McNeece building at 5th and F. Bill was always doing nice things for me and for that reason he still lives in my heart".

Y. were married last evening at the Presbyteriahn church, Rev. Mr. B. Z. McCollough officiating. Miss Pettit arrived at Tucson Wednesday evening and has been entertained at the home of J. B. This family is recorded in the book History of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary, of the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in the United States, ... Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, 1826-1926. Abdel was a 1907 graduate of the seminary, and "spent three years in the universities of Germany and for seven years teaching general history and English Bible in the College at Gettysburg..." Abdel obtained his Ph.D. from George Washington University in 1914 and his D.D. from Gettysburg in 1921. He also was interested in genealogy and in 1932 was listed in detail in the book The Handbook of American Genealogy, Vol. 1, published by Frederick Adams Virkus of the Institute of American Genealogy. His name appears in the 1937 volume in Mark Miner's possession.

He wrote or edited the following books Luther's Works: Word and Sacrament (Fortress Press, 1959), A Basic History of Lutheranism in America (Fortress Press, 1964); "Luther and His Tradition," Protestantism: A Symposium (Methodist Church, 1944); The Beginnings of the German Element in York County, Pennsylvania (Lancaster, PA: 1916); The Lutheran Church in American History (United Lutheran Publication House, 1933); History of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Frederick, Maryland, 1738-1938 (Evangelical Press, 1938); History of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Maryland of the United Lutheran Church in America, 1820-1920; Pioneer in Christian Nunity: Samuel Simon Schmucker (Philadelphia: Fortress Press, 1967); "The Long-Range Logic of Reformation Thought" in The Maturing of American Lutheranism. He was a member of the executive committee of the National Lutheran Council from 1948 to 1954. Today his name is memorialized with the Abdel Ross Wentz Library at the Lutheran Theological Seminary. As well, the Abdel Ross Wentz Prize is a $1,000 cash award to be presented annually to the author of the most outstanding essay or research paper dealing with American Lutheran history. All students enrolled in a master's degree program at a theological seminary, divinity school, or department of religious studies in North America are eligible to compete. If the quality and number of submissions warrant, there may be a second or third prize awarded.

Per the website of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America: A leading historian, teacher, pastor, administrator, and international world figure, Abdel Ross Wentz (1883-1976) utilized his literary and organizational skills to usher Lutheranism into a world arena. His efforts in authoring a Lutheran World Federation (LWF) constitution and in forming the World Council of Churches (WCC) helped establish a strong Lutheran voice in discussion about international relief, reconstruction efforts, and ecumenical church unity. Abdel R. Wentz was born on October 8, 1883. After graduating from Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, in 1904, Wentz received a ministerial degree from Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, in 1907. Wentz began his professional career in 1909 as a professor of general history at Pennsylvania College. In 1916, he transferred to his other alma mater, Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, to teach church history. In 1940, Wentz became president of the Gettysburg Seminary, a position he held until 1951. Wentz's contribution to American and international Lutheranism is tied to his strong scholarship and leadership abilities. As a historian, he authored and edited numerous books and articles key to Lutheran historiography. As a member of the American Bible Revision Committee, he helped prepare the text for the Revised Standard Version of the New Testament. In addition, Wentz served as President of the American Society of Church History from 1931-32 and as curator of the Lutheran Historical Society. As a pastor in the United Lutheran Church in America, Wentz served on this body's executive board (1924-32) and on its Board of Foreign Missions (1940-52). In 1944, he was appointed President of the Missions Board. In addition, Wentz served on the National Lutheran Council's Executive Committee from 1948-54. As a world figure, Wentz is known best for his leadership in the Lutheran World Convention (LWC), LWF, and the WCC. His involvement in the LWC, an international Lutheran organization designed to coordinate Lutheran relief and reconstruction efforts, dates to its formation in the early 1920s. One of Wentz's greatest contributions to the LWC was made as chairman of the Committee on Constitution. At the fourth convention in Lund, Sweden, the LWF was created to replace the LWC. Designed as an organization of world Lutheranism with clear purposes and well defined functions, the LWF took Wentz's constitutional draft as its guiding document. Wentz served as a vice president of this organization from 1947-52. Wentz's role in the World Council of Churches can also be traced to the organization's founding. In 1956, Wentz retired from Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary. After teaching two years at Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in Columbia, South Carolina, he devoted the rest of his life to research and writing.

Description: The Abdel Ross Wentz papers (1921-48) document his involvement in three organizations: LWC, LWF, and the WCC. These records include minutes, reports, agenda, memoranda, correspondence, official documents (such as the LWF constitution), notes, and news releases. The bulk of Wentz's papers are held by the Lutheran Theological Seminary in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. The collection is also available on microfilm.

They had one child:

4819 i. Barbara Lynn (1943-)

Blanche second married Lloyd Purbaugh.

Per the Somerset Daily American, July 23, 2006: “Considering everything, she's doing fairly well, Blanche Purbaugh said. Mrs. Purbaugh, a resident of The Heritage at Siemon Lakeview Manor Estate, Somerset, is 104. She was born on Nov. 25, 1901, in Trent. The year she was born, President William McKinley was assassinated and Theodore Roosevelt succeeded him, the first exhibition of Pablo Picasso's work opened and the Edison Storage Battery Company was founded.She is the oldest of six children of John Wesley Tedrow and Emma Grace Younkin Tedrow. Her sister, Eleanor Romesberg, Jerome, and her brother, John Tedrow, New Jersey, are still living. When she was younger than 2, her parents bought a farm about one mile from Rockwood. “My father had good crops, but he believed in stopping work in the evening and reading,” she said. “He always read the newspaper. We lived okay. He took part in elections and I don't want to brag, but he was pretty well looked up to in the community.” Her mother's only sibling, her brother, died of diphtheria when he was 8. When her father was 1, his five older siblings died within one month of an illness. She doesn't know what the illness was, but said a physician told the family nothing could be done. Her grandmother was very good at sewing and made clothes for the family and doll clothes for the girls. She taught Blanche to sew, which she enjoyed. “My earliest memory - I think I was 2, I came downstairs on Christmas and I saw a doll on the tree, and I said, ‘That doll is mine,'” she said. “I could say my letters at that age. I was a little jealous of my brother because I had been an only child.” Mrs. Purbaugh is a graduate of the former Indiana Teachers College. Her nephew took her to the 50-year reunion and she was the only living member of the class of 1951. She taught for two years at the former Boswell Elementary School and then 39 years at Rockwood Elementary School. Earl Edgar Bowman, her first husband, taught high school and was a principal at Rockwood. He also was an independent insurance agent. He was on his way to work on Nov. 28, 1955, their 15th wedding anniversary, and died of a heart attack. She studied to become a licensed insurance agent and kept his business, Pennsylvania National, going for 30 years after his death. She had a large house in Rockwood and Lloyd Purbaugh, a telegraph operator for the B&O, who traveled around a lot, rented a room from her. They married in 1987 and he died in 2000. She had one daughter, Barbara Saylor, who died in 1992. She has four grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren, with one on the way. She is a member of Trinity Reformed Church, Rockwood. Mrs. Purbaugh is in very good health. She lived alone until about a year ago, when she fell down a flight of stairs. She didn't break any bones, but her family convinced her to move into assisted living. She doesn't wear glasses and got a hearing aid earlier this month. She uses a walker, but not a wheelchair. She proudly points out she still has all her own teeth. “She didn't want to move or have anybody living with her,” her granddaughter, Anita Persuhn, said. “She burned a few pots, so we started cooking for her. After her fall, we convinced her to move.” She attributes her long life to good genes. She recently started a new project: At her grandchildren's request, she began writing her memoirs. “I'm writing my life story,” Mrs. Purbaugh said. “My grandchildren insisted. I have 23 pages done (in long-hand). I write when I feel like writing. I'm in no hurry to finish, but when I finish, they'll each receive one.”

Robert's obituary on the McComas Funeral Home website: Robert Wilson "Bob" Park, Jr., of Joppa, Maryland, aged 72, passed away on October 4, 2009, at the Gilchrist Hospice of complications of Alzheimer's disease. Born in Quantico, Virginia, Mr. Park was the son of the late Robert W. Park, Sr. and Adele Herlihy Park. Mr. Park was a graduate of the University of Richmond and a very successful career salesman. Bob was a "people person," and as sales executive for Victor Business Products, he was beloved by many customers, winning national awards for top sales in cash registers and calculators. Leaving Victor, he joined Motorola in the infancy of cellular telephones and later sold phones for CellularOne. Mr. Park was a Life Member of the Joppa-Magnolia Volunteer Fire Company for over 30 years, where he was once President. Bob served on the ambulance and fought fires, and in later years, served on the Board of Directors. In 1999, he was elected to the Harford-Cecil Volunteer Fireman's Association Hall of Fame. Also, Bob loved boating and enjoyed cruising with his wife in many creeks on the Eastern Shore. A long-time victim of kidney disease, after 4 years of dialysis, he received a kidney transplant, a generous gift from a family in Southern Maryland. The transplant gave him 13 years of good quality of life. Best known as a devoted family man, Bob is survived by his loving wife of 30 years, Barbara Younkin Jump Park, and six daughters, Jennifer Duffy and husband, Joe, of Glen Rock, PA, Elizabeth Anderson and husband, Guy, of Towson, Heather Hendricksen and husband, Dwight, of Owings Mills, Wendy Smith and husband, Matt, of Ellicott City, Rebecca Stevenson and husband, Dan, of New Freedom, PA, and Jessica Park of Abingdon. Pittsburgh Post-Gazette article, Dec. 15, 2001 – “Fire kills 2 children, injures 2 in Fayette - As flames raced through Apartment 56 in the Marion Villa public housing complex in Washington Township, Fayette County, yesterday morning, time was running out for four children trapped inside. Firefighters, struggling through flames and dense smoke, used a thermal imaging camera to look for bodies. But the firefighters were too late to save 3-year-old Thomas Stephon Long, who lived in the apartment, and 2-year-old Gerald Younkin III, who was visiting from Connellsville. Firefighters pulled them from the apartment, unresponsive, and they were taken by ambulance to Monongahela Valley Hospital, where both were pronounced dead from smoke inhalation shortly after noon. Gerald's 8-month-old sister, whose name was not released, was taken by helicopter to Children's Hospital, where she was listed in critical condition with burns and smoke inhalation. A 13-year-old boy who also had been trapped saved himself by jumping from a second-story window. The boy, whose name likewise was not released, but who is Gerald's and the baby's uncle, suffered smoke inhalation and a broken ankle. He was transported from Mon Valley Hospital to Children's by ambulance in fair condition. Thomas Long lived with his mother, Margie Povlik, in the apartment, part of a complex operated by the Fayette County Housing Authority. Gerald and his sister are children of Povlik's cousin, Billie Jo Ohler. The 13-year-old boy is Ohler's brother. The state police fire marshal from the Uniontown barracks was investigating the fire, which was reported shortly before 9 a.m. Washington Township police also were investigating. One area of scrutiny will be why the smaller children were left alone in the supervision of a 13-year-old. "It's one thing when adults die in a fire, but to have babies die ... it's a lot to swallow," said Police Chief Frank Monack, who praised the efforts of firefighters."

Associated Press article, Sept. 11, 2003 – "UNIONTOWN -- Two mothers were convicted of involuntary manslaughter and reckless endangerment yesterday for leaving their three children alone at home before a fire started and killed the toddlers. Cousins Margie Povlick and Billie Jo Ohler could each be sentenced to more than 30 years in prison for the convictions stemming from the Dec. 14, 2001 tragedy near Belle Vernon, about 25 miles south of Pittsburgh. Authorities said the women left the children -- Povlick's son, 3-year-old Tomas Long, and Ohler's children, 2-year-old Gerald Younkin III and 8-month-old Rebecca Ohler -- alone in their apartment for about one-half hour while they tried to track down a cell phone. The women were visiting a neighbor when the fire started. The women have said they believed Ohler's brother, who was 13 at the time, would watch the children. But he said he never agreed to baby-sit and was sleeping at the time of the blaze. He escaped by jumping from a second-floor window. In her closing statements, Fayette County District Attorney Nancy Vernon likened the women's actions to drunken driving. "Both a drunken driver and mothers who leave their children home alone could foresee tragedy," she told the jury. "What would have happened if the mothers had been there to help them?" Vernon told the jury that "anything can happen to a toddler if they are left alone for one minute." The women's attorneys argued that the deaths were a tragic accident and that the women couldn't have foreseen something as unpredictable as a fire. "These children were not killed by being left unattended. They were killed by a fire," said James Robinson, Ohler's attorney. "These ladies lost their children -- part of themselves -- and nothing we can do is going to bring them back." The verdict was met by tears and scuffle between family members outside the courtroom. "These deaths tear you up forever. I waited two years to see what would happen," said Mary Lee Younkin, Gerald's grandmother. "But it will never really be over, because he'll never come back." Povlick, who was unemotional during the trial, shook her head while the verdict was read, while Ohler sobbed, both in the courtroom and as she was being led away to jail. "Not only did I lose two children, but I have a 2-month-old and I'm [losing her too]," Ohler said. The women will be sentenced Oct. 16.

Obituary of Linda Lee Marker's step-son Randy Simmons – Somerset (PA) Daily American –April 7, 2016

Randy C. Simmons, 32, lost his battle with heroin April 5, 2016, at the home of his stepmother, Linda Marker, in Rockwood. Born in Pittsburgh July 30, 1983, son of Craig J. and the late Sharon (Wallace) Simmons. Survived by daughter Kenzie E. Simmons, father, and brother Robin. Memorial service will be held later.

Somerset (PA) Daily American – Letter to the Editor - April 14, 2016 – "Last week, on Friday, you saw a short obituary for Randy Simmons, who died of a heroin overdose. He grew up in nearby Westmoreland County. He was the son of professionals: the mother was an RN, and his father received two Purple Hearts from Vietnam, and was a social worker. Many of you may have been shocked to see the cause of death so overtly stated. There was a reason: We in Somerset County are so "insulated" from such "nasty" problems, except for those that are directly touched by the drug epidemic. I have been weary of well-intentioned friends who treat addiction as a "choice" and not as a disease. We need major education in this area, regarding the research, which shows actual physical changes to the brain once the drug is first used. My step-son had made many attempts to get clean and stay clean. His failure was not for lack of desire or lack of trying. And, look at the verbiage I've just used: It implies the user is "dirty." And, indeed, I would compare the disease of addiction to the leprosy of Biblical times. Some question why I would take this man-child back into my home (I met and bonded with him when he was a needy four-year-old), but he told me he was tired, cold, and hungry. He'd been homeless for about 2 ½ months. So, I take comfort in knowing that in his last days, he had a warm bed, a full tummy, and love. Let me just say, that this man was not a statistic, but somebody's son, brother, cousin, father, and friend. And, except for the grace of God, it could be yours. It's happening to "nice people" everywhere, but the "dirty secret" is kept just that, secret. Families suffer in silence. I did a very public "exposure" of the humanoid who picked this man up, from his safe location here, and enabled him with money and access to the poison, from which he died two hours after he was delivered home. People need to know. People need to act. But most of all, people need to be non-judgmental. What would Jesus do? I will close with the words of the wife of the manager of the mission in Latrobe: "I am beyond sick to hear about my friend Randy…he died of a drug overdose …a heroin overdose…my god did he struggle. I just talked to him the day before he went to rehab…he got out and a so called friend gave him 10 stamp bags of heroin…w[hat] is wrong with people. He was crying out for help. He made horrible mistakes in his life but deep down was a good man. Randy I hope you are now at peace."

She was killed on May 27, 2011. Her obituary: Airshow performer Amanda Franklin passed away May 27, 2011. Doctors at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio had been treating her extensive burns, injuries, and ensuing infections since a March 12, 2011 crash landing and engine fire during a show routine. She was 25. Amanda was born on March 14, 1986 in Springdale, AR., to Jeanie and the late Bobby Younkin. She was a very accomplished gymnast, musician, animal welfare advocate, and aviation enthusiast. After learning to fly at the age of 16, Amanda became an accomplished multi-engine and tail wheel pilot; she became proficient in over 15 different types of airplanes.

Amanda was patriotic and had the utmost respect for those who put themselves in harm's way in order to protect our freedom. She joined the Commemorative Air Force and also participated for several years in a World War Two style pinup calendar to help preserve the heritage of our country's fallen heroes. Amanda was also a huge supporter of women in aviation. As one herself, she coached and encouraged young girls that she spoke with at airshows to pursue their dreams of becoming a pilot and to never let anyone hold them back. She was a member of the Arkansas ninety-nines, a group of women pilots that dates back to the nineteen thirties. Amanda made a huge impact in a short amount of time on millions of aviation patrons, airshow fans, and humanity in general. She inspired millions from the young to the young at heart with her amazing wingwalking feats, charming personality, and calendar girl smile. She will be sorely missed by countless people the world over.

Donna gave this original Word document to Mark A. Miner on a CD at the 2001 Younkin Reunion East, Kingwood, PA. After Donna's death in 2006, and continuing to today, Miner has made a concerted effort to transform these entries into narrative, illustrated biographies which are published on his Minerd.com website.

This is a link to the web-biography archive's table of contents as of Dec. 31, 2024 – https://www.minerd.com/younkin_pages.htm

This is a link to Miner's web-tribute to Donna, entitled "An Admiring, Overdue Tribute to a Pioneering and Inexhaustible Genealogist" - https://www.minerd.com/donna_younkin_logan_tribute.htm

Note by Mark T. Youngkin dated 5-29-2025: In December 2024, Mark A. Miner supplied Mark T. Youngkin with the latest version of Donna (Younkin) Logan's Microsoft Word database. Since 2001, Miner contributed new research findings to the database. Youngkin added the 2002-2204 information found by Donna and Hans Wilhelm Junghenn on five generations of Junghen ancestors in Niederasphe, Hessen, Germany. The family of late Donna (Younkin) Logan requested her research be shared with future family genealogists. Youngkin made changes to formatting, font, section headings, margins, title, and added a cover page, introduction, table of contents, header and footer, and page numbers, before exporting a single PDF file of the Register Report.
